OVERVIEW

Global covers broad aspects of the system, such as Environment systems, Life & Death, and common Miscellaneous.

This chapter covers the basic outline of the system, including it's foundational pillars, and the role of the other booklets.

Booklets

This game is split into X booklets, so that game info can be easily shared at a table.

Global

Contains information on the system-wide mechanisms, such as distance, experience, and damage.

Adventure

The core game rules, for exploring and dying in dungeons.

Character

Instructions for character creation, and description of character classes.

Gear

Lists of items available to purchase, and their effects.

Magic

Instructions for spell casting. Lists of spells, and their effects.

Downtime

Variety of non-dungeon actives, mostly played solo, or with one player and the Dungeon Master

Dungeon Master

Instructions and resources for the Dungeon Master.

Monster

List of monsters and their abilities.

Philosophy

I see all ttrpgs as essentially equal. I see system as a way to support the feel of a game. This is the system I wrote to support my first major game after the pandemic.

Old School Renaissance

This is essentially a hack of B/X. I stated running vintage modules after playing in a game with Old School Essentials.

I found myself moving away from vintage modules and rules. Eventually I came to write this rule set to support an OSR style game, while appealing to other values.

Light

The rules should be easy to run, making more room for the real game.

Players don't need to read the entire rule book. Instead, byte sized chunks can be taught quickly, without breaking the flow of the game.

The players should be should be able to learn the mechanics quickly enough to not hinder game play, even when learning to make their first attack or sneak roll.

This leads to a somewhat object oriented approach.

Setting

This game is intended as a dungeon crawler run by a Dungeon Master, in a high fantasy, sword and sorcery setting.

It's intended to be played in a sessions of 3-6 hours, by a group that meets somewhat regularly a campaign that lasts several months. Characters level up and die frequently, so its not a huge issue if people miss sessions, or join part way through.

Dungeon

The dungeon is a restricted environment in which play happens. The game is optimized to work in that environment.

Pillars

This game is actually many games, woven into each other with narrative.

Role Play

Conversation with collaborative imagination.

Skills

Roll a target number in order to be able to do something.

Combat

Reduce the enemy's resources before they reduce yours.

Puzzles

A complex problem with no clear solution. Each spell and item is a tiny solution, looking for a problem.

Inventory

Resources are limited; what will you do with them?

Exploration

The players develop a sense of discovery for this world, mapping and learning it for themselves.

World Building

World building is not just for the referee. As players advanced they're are encouraged to develop their characters beyond their stats and abilities.

Players can do a great deal to fill in the details of their town and world.

Power Levels

Slowly leveling up, growing in power, and beginning domain management.

Solo Play

Players may individually think through problems and do down time. They might also do additional role play outside of the group.

Roles

It's useful to have some players assume certain roles.

Score Keeper

The score keeper keeps track of the XP gained during the session. See page 15.

Playing without a mapper

The Dungeon Master can award milestone XP per session or per goal.

Mapper

At least one player should draw a map of the area based on the Dungeon Master's description. See Adventure page 12.

Playing without a mapper

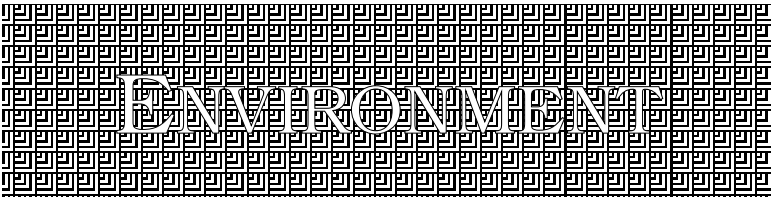

The players will get lost eventually.

Caller

In many situationist, the players may wish to discuss a long time before taking an action. In such case, they might wish to appoint an official person to declare the actions of the party. They act only as a messenger, communicating the intent of the individual players.

Playing without a mapper

The Dungeon Master can assume reasonable actions for players, such as to follow the group, even when they don't directly state so.

This chapter covers how to track light, distance, and similar environment elements.

Time

Time is measured in rough measurements tied to game mechanics. The actual game time is up to the Dungeon Master.

Turns: Basic unit of game play. Often about ten minutes.

Rounds: Each turn can be split into 10 rounds.

Week: The referee will award a whole number of "weeks" for Downtime.

Distance

There are two methods, squares and steps, which are employed at different times.

Step

Three steps is from one room to another. That is:

1 Moving to a door.

2 Moving to the threshold.

3 Moving to a room or hallway.

The following also count as a step:

- Traversing a long hallway, wide room, or large area.
- Traversing stairs or a ladder.
- Traversing a simple obstacle.
- Traversing between two zones in a large area.

Squares

Count the number of map squares. The Dungeon Master will announce the size of the squares on each level, which is often 10'.

Feet

Distance is rarely measured in feet, especially in spell descriptions.

Zone

Ranges and other relative locations, are split into four zones.

Touch: In the same square.

Close: Throwing distance, about 3 squares.

Distant: Speaking distance. about 9 squares.

Sight: Anything that can be seen (up to 3 miles in ideal conditions).

Noise

There are three volumes of noise: silent, quiet, and loud.

Loud

Loud noises are always heard up to three steps away.

Loud noises cause nearby monsters to check Observation.

A Loud noise may be a while blowing, sword banging against a shield, or yelling.

Quiet

Quiet noises are always heard up to one step away, and may heard up to three steps away, when listening.

Quiet noises cause alerted monsters to check Observation.

Creatures can silence a quiet noise with a successful dexterity check.

A quiet noise may be speaking, or walking.

Silent

If something is silent, it produces effectively no sound.

A silent noise may be an imperceptible footstep, or a whisper.

Light

There are three light levels: dark, dim, and bright .

Dark

The darkness is pitch black, completely preventing sight. May impose blindness.

Dim

Allows some details to be seen, but prevents reading or recognizing details.

Bright

Allows full recognition of details and reading. Bright also disables infravision (see below)

Light Power

A light source casts bright light for a number of squares equal to its light power, and dim light for the same number of squares beyond that.

Source	Power
Candle	1
Lantern	2
Magic	3
Torch	4

Blind

Creatures that are unable to perceive their surroundings are blind.

Most creatures are blind when in the dark, but some have Infravision, or are able to navigate purely by smell.

Blind creatures are status, but may move one random step, each round.

Marching Order

Holding the light source anywhere other than the front reduces its light power by one.

Burn

When the Dungeon Master announces burn, lanterns will need a new flask of oil, and torches will burn out (see Dungeon Master page Error: Reference source not found).

Candles do not suffer from burn, instead always burning for exactly one session.

Magical light does not burn.

Infravision

Most monsters and some demihumans have special vision that allows them to see in the dark.

hey see the heat energy that radiates off of distant and closer living things.

It is not possible to read in dark or dim with infravision.

When a creature with infravision stands in bright or dim, they are blinded for one round, and their infravision is disabled until they spend a full turn in the dark reacclimating.

Status

Status results from blindness, hold person, and many other conditions. It is almost completely restrictive.

Attacks against statuses creatures always succeed.

Status creatures can not:

- ► Move.
- ► Make attacks.
- ► Cast spells.
- ► Use magic items.
- ► Use class skills.

Status creatures may:

- ► Hear and speak.
- ► Make saving throws.
- ► Take actions, if any, granted by the source of the paralysis.

Override

The source may override part of the normal penalties. If so, other penalties still apply.

Apply the most restrictive status available.

Item Slots

In order to pick up an item, the character must have free inventory slots to carry it.

- ► Most Objects: one slot.
- ► Heavy Objects: Such as plate armor, and two handed weapons; two slots.
- ► Stack Items: Items such as torches can stack five items to one slot.
- ► Person Or Body: Three slots.

Number

A player character has a base of five item slots, plus a bonus from their strength. See Character page 4.

Backpacks, and some class abilities grant additional slots.

Minions also have item slots.

Encumbrance

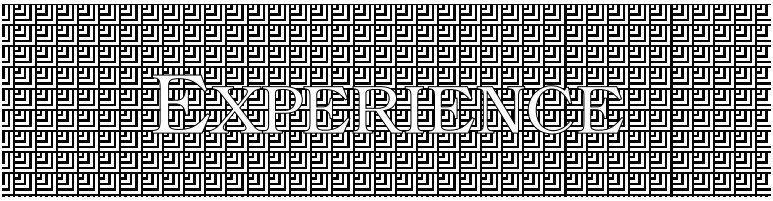

Becoming encumbered doubles a creatures item slots.

Encumbered creatures are status, but make attacks, and move at half speed.

Horses

A horse can carry a person and their items. If a horse is not ridden, it has twenty item slots, and can pull a cart or wagon.

A passenger and their inventory occupies thirteen slots when inside a cart or wagon.

This chapter covers experience points (XP) and how their awarded.

Score Sheet

One player acts as score keeper (see page 6). They keep a written list of each score.

At the end of the session, the score keeper will confer with the Dungeon Master to establish the total amount of XP.

XP is divided evenly between all surviving characters. between all surviving characters. The score keeper will announce the final amount gained.

Prime Requisite

Each class has one or two prime requisites, which grants bonus XP for having a high score.

Characters with at least a 9 in one prime requisite gain 5% extra XP.

Characters with at least a 9 in both gain 15% extra XP.

Minions

If players are 2nd level or higher, their Minions gain the same amount of XP.

Score

A score is something that awards XP.

Treasure

Recovering treasure from a dungeon scores 1 XP per 1 cp value of the treasure.

Recovering a magic item scores 1000 XP.

Defeated Monsters

Defeating monsters scores XP based on their HD, plus a bonus for each special ability. e.g. a 2+2 HD monster with an ability is worth 35 XP.

HD	Base	Bonus
<1	5	1
1	10	3
1+	15	4
2	20	5
2+	25	10
3	35	15
3+	50	25
4	75	50
4+	125	75
5, 5+	200	150
6, 6+, 7	300	250
7+, 8, 8+	650	550
≥9	1000	700

Goal

Achieving a goal scores 100 XP per character involved.

Session Report

Writing a session report scores 100 XP for the writer.

Mapping

Mapping a complete dungeon level scores XP equal to 1000 times the depth of the level.

Leveling Up

When a character gains enough XP to reach the next experience level, the player consults the character's class and notes any improvements in saving throws, AV, spells, etc.

They also roll their health (see page 19).

One Session Maximum

Characters cannot advance more than one level in one session. Any additional XP that would take a character two or more levels above their current level are lost, leaving the character at 1 XP below the total for the next level.

LIED & SEELE

Health Points

Health points (HP) represents the ability withstand injury.

Health Die

Health dice are used to determine HP. Each class has a different health die. Monsters have a d8 health die.

Rolling Health

When when leveling up, roll a number of hit dice equal to your level. Add the bonus from constitution times your level. If the new total is greater than your current, it becomes your new HP.

Damage

Slain

When a creature takes damage equal to or greater than its HP, it is slain.

Slain Minions and Monsters die. Slain player Characters are near death (p20); If not healed within one turn, they die.

Destruction

If a slain by a fire, explosion, or magic, Characters instantly die, and items are destroyed.

For each magic item a save versus spells may be made; the object survives on a success.

Subdual

If the final attack on an creature is made with a blunt weapon, they can be left nonleathally incapacitated, and status until a shift.

Healing

Healing removes damage.

Natural Healing

One week of Downtime heals 2d6.

Bandaging

Bandages can be applied to an injuries less than 3 turns old.

Make an intelligence check. If you succeed, heal 1d6.

Restriction: Bandaging takes one turn, and consumes a bandage. Each injury can only be bandaged once.

You may bandage yourself.

Magical Healing

Magic potions or spells can provide instantaneous healing.

When magically healing an slain character, they dismember with advantage.

Near Death

Between life and death there is a terrible void. Standing on that threshold, one is blinded by light from both sides.

Death

After a full turn near death, Characters die. If they receive any healing, they instead roll dismemberment

Bonus

Once each round, near death Characters can give advantage to a close ally on one roll.

Dismemberment

When near death Characters are healed, roll d20. Subtract your constitution score. Reference the table. If they survive, they heal 1.

Result	Dismemberment
≤0	Unharmed
1-5	Broken rib: -1 constitution.
6-7	Lost eye.
8	Lost arm.
9	Broken leg: +2 AC.
≥10	Dead

Burial

Simple burial prevents the body from being reanimated. If a cleric uses one turn to preform a blessing, the soul will not return. Temples will also bury and bless the dead.

Cremation of the body prevents resurrection.

Rites

When funerary rites are preformed, the character sheet must be ripped up.

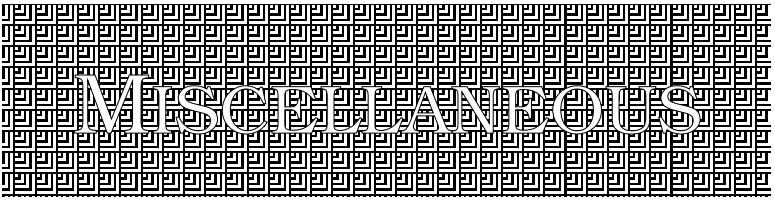

Resurrection

Returning from death is an ordeal. Until the subject gets two full weeks of bed rest, they have 1 hit point, move at half the normal rate, cannot carry heavy items, and cannot attack, cast spells, or use other class abilities. This period of weakness may not be shortened by any magical healing.

Each time a character is returned, their constitution is reduced by 1. If their constitution is 3 or less, they can not be returned.

Inheritance

10% estate take to local government or temple.

MISCELLANEOUS

Advantage

When making a roll with advantage, roll twice and take the better.

Disadvantage

When making a roll with disadvantage, roll twice and take the worse.

Abilities

There are six abilities: Strength, Dexterity, Constitution, Intelligence, Wisdom, and Charisma. They're rated from 3, the worst, to 18, the best.

Checking

The Dungeon Master may use a character's ability scores to determine success in a task.

You succeed if d20 ≤ ability score.

Saving Throws

All characters and monsters can make saving throws to avoid the full effects of certain magical or special attacks.

Categories

There are five saving throw categories:

Death (D): When targeted by a death ray or exposed to poison.

Weird (W): When exposed to radiation or other worlds.

Paralysis Or Petrification (P): When targeted by an effect that paralyses or turns to stone.

Blast (B): When targeted by dragon breath or explosions.

Spells Or Magic (S): When targeted by a baneful spell or an effect from a magic item.

Each character class has its own table denoting the saving throw values of characters of each experience level. Monsters have their own table. (See p)

Checking

You succeed if d20 ≥ save value.

Success against an effect that causes damage means that the damage is halved. Otherwise, the effect has been entirely avoided or negated.

Rounding

When not otherwise specified, round down.

Tough folk gather, ready to set off onto a perilous journey. They make plans, secure allies, and gather supplies.

The initial phase of the game is called Set Up, and usually takes about an hour, but could take less with proper preparation.

Play is largely done asynchronously. Therefore it is okay for players to show up late with in this time, and to make side conversation.

Solo Play

Downtime

Returning characters get 1 week of Downtime, which is detailed in its own booklet.

They also receive natural healing, see Global page 20.

Characters who owe service must preform it before pursuing other options.

Shopping

All characters can go shopping at any of the shops detailed in Gear.

Hirelings

1d4 hirelings will seek employment if there is a character of second level or greater. See Character page 6.

World Building

Rumors

The Dungeon Master might players rumors, especially if there is a new character, or a new dungeon.

Character

The players each share one detail about their character, past, community, or deity.

Adventurers Guild

The players are all part of an adventurers guild. They should put forward at least one detail about it to the Dungeon Master.

Examples include:

► The guild is named the Craven Folk.

► The guild began when an injured party began sending new adventures on quests.

► The camp was found by a towns guard when they followed the orcs.

Goals

Each session, the players may agree to set one goal for the party. If the goal has already been completed in the past, or is not difficult enough, the Dungeon Master may reject it.

Completing a goal scores experience. See Global page 15.

Additionally, the Dungeon Master may give individual goals to certain players. The Dungeon Master may give additional rewards beyond XP.

Examples of goals:

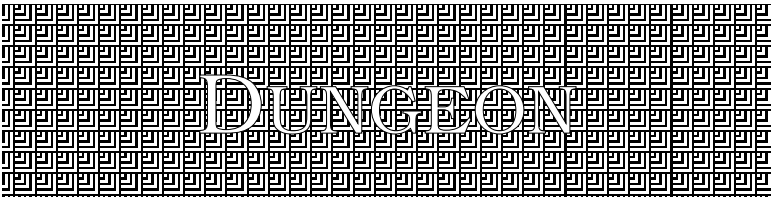

- No character deaths.
- Get to the third level of the dungeon.
- Rescue a prisoner.
- Kill a particular monster.

Traveling

The Dungeon Master makes available a list of available dungeons. Each dungeon will be a certain number of miles away.

When the players choose a dungeon to travel to, they pay the travel cost, then begin the next phase: Dungeon.

Good	Price per mile (cp)
Person	1
Animal	1
Monster	2
Cart or Wagon	3
Boat	5

Creeping deeper into the dungeon, you can’t shake the feeling of being watched.

The second and primary phase of the game is exploring the dungeon. It will alternate with the fourth phase Conflict.

Basics

Time

Time passes in turns, with most actions taking one turn. See Global page 9.

Error: Reference Source Not Found

At the end of each turn, the Dungeon Master will roll for hazards such as fatigue and burn. See Dungeon Master page Error: Reference source not found.

Moving

Normal

At a cautious dungeon speed, moving three steps takes one turn. See Global page 9.

Slow

By crawling, moving just one step takes a full turn. Players will automatically detect traps, and move silently.

Fast

Moving at a reckless pace allows players to move ten steps in one turn. However, there are many penalties:

- ► Surprised by all encounters.
- ► Spring all traps.
- ► Create loud noise.
- ► Cannot map.
- ► Candles are blown out.
- ► Cannot check doors.

Marching

While in narrow hallways, movement is restricted. The marching order is decided by the players.

Marching order is split into ranks.

The size of the square determines how many people can fit in one rank: one person per 5’.

Characters in the front rank will get to see and act first.

Searching

Searching reveals non-obvious features. A search will always reveal everything it can.

Consult the table for the amount of time a search takes for four, two, and one creatures.

Area	8	4	2	1
Hallway	1	1	2	4
Small Room	1	1	2	4
Large Room	1	2	4	8
Outdoors	1	1	2	4

Other Actions

Resting

Spending one turn resting will remove fatigue.

Bandaging

See Global page 20.

Reclaiming Ammo

one half (round up) of ammo can be reclaimed in a brief search.

Sneaking

A sneak roll is used to determine if a player can preform an action without alerting a monster.

Observation Class

The higher this number is, the more likely a monster is to notice a player.

A monster can have its OC reduced by being distracted (-2), intoxicated (-2), in conversation (-4), or asleep (-6).

Checking

The default sneak die is a d8.

Players succeed if their sneak die rolls less than the OC of the monster.

When they fail a sneak check, the monster notices them, but is tapped for one round.

When moving in darkness, sneak die becomes a d10.

Some abilities also change the die.

Doors

The Dungeon Master should describe the material, age, handle, hinges, etc.

Doors not held open will swing silently shut during a shift.

Magical doors need special conditions to be opened, and can't be picked, or broken.

Checking Doors

Once per turn, a player can check a door.

Each door can only be checked once.

The Dungeon Master rolls a d6.

Peephole: If there is a peep hole, or cracks, +2.

Class: If an adventurer has a bonus from their class, add only the strongest bonus.

Results: A roll of 5 or more will reveal information. Revealing "nothing" or "darkness" is indicative of either a failure, or accurately assessing a dark quiet room

Failing To Open

Attempting to open a stuck, bared, or locked door fails quietly.

Breaking Doors

Physically destroying a door takes one turn, requires appropriate tools, and makes a loud noise.

Talking

Reaction Roll

When speaking with monsters, the Dungeon Master might ask for a reaction modifier. See Character p4

The Dungeon Master might make the roll at advantage or disadvantage, depending on the player's actions.

A high roll will make the monsters more friendly. A low roll will make them more hostile. A very high or very low roll will also make them status for one round. See Dungeon Master p3.

Retcon

Each session, each player has one Retcon. It can be used for one of the following options. In general, anything that could have been done during Set Up can be done as a retcon.

Purchase

Have gotten a particular item while shopping.

Spoken

Role play a brief conversation had before the adventure.

MAPPING

This chapter is about mapping. It covers simple and detailed methods of mapping. It is a simple system not able to cover every possible map, so you may have to get creative.

Additionally, you may wish to modify the system to better suit your needs. Any agreed upon system will work.

See also Global page 6.

Simple Method

Rather than track the exact dimensions of every room, the mapper might opt to keep a general shape of the dungeon by only drawing rooms, and their connections.

Calls

To keep an exact map, the mapper should ask the Dungeon Master for a call.

Each call has a precise meaning. The mapper and Dungeon Master should work together to establish calls that work for them.

The Dungeon Master should avoid looking at the players map, and avoid perfecting the players map.

Unless the mapper has a compass, calls will not include cardinal directions.

Restrictions

The Dungeon Master will only provide calls when the players ask, and only after they enter a room and are able to spend time observing it.

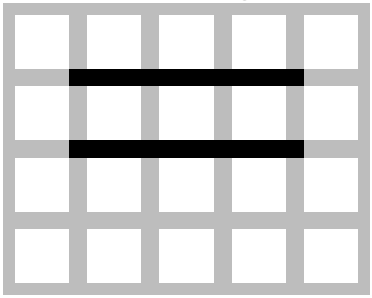

Corridor Calls

Except for hallway, each of these calls indicate exactly one square.

Hallway

Hallway, Number, Direction: Indicates the corridor goes straight for a number of squares in that direction.

Draw: Two straight lines.

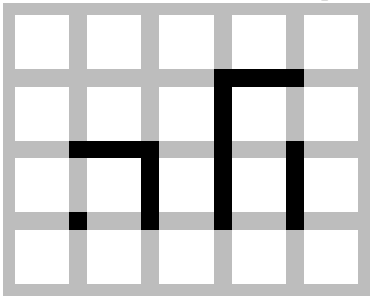

Hallway 3 west.

Turn

Turn, Direction: Indicates a square where the corridor turns in the direction

Draw: A dot + an L shape.

Right: Hallway 1 north. Turn west.

Split

Draw: Line + two dots.

Right: hallway 1 north. Split.

Cross

Cross: indicates a square with four openings.

Drawing: Four dots

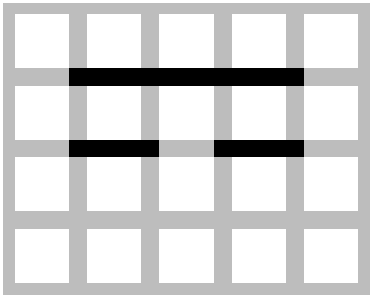

Cross.

Branch

Branch, Direction: Indicates the corridor has an opening on the side or direction indicated.

Draw: Line + two dots.

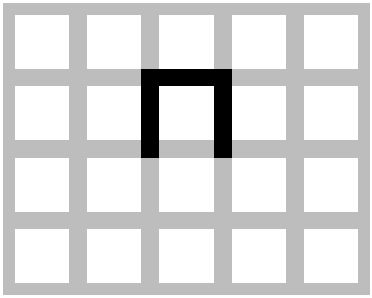

Hallway 1 east. Branch south. Hallway 1 east.

Terminate

Terminate: Indicates the end of a corridor.

Draw: Three sided U.

Terminate.

Rooms

Rectangular

Designate a door as the entrance. Call how far the wall extends to each side. Then describe the depth of the room.

Wall Trace

Starting from the entrance, call the direction and length of each segment of wall.

Doors / Exits

Doors are hinged panels. Exits are open passageways.

Call them after calling a rooms or corridors.

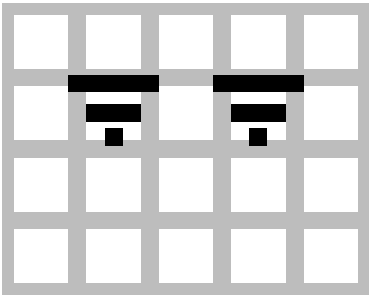

On each wall, count squares from east to west, north to south (reading direction), naming the number of the squares, and whether there is a door or an exit.

Draw: Pictogram

Stairs

Stairs, and a direction (up or down), indicate a square filled with stairs. The stairs extend away from the previous call.

Draw: Pictogram.

Right: Stairs going down.

Examplez

This is a small example of a map and calls, starting from the entrance marked E.

The solution is on page 8 of Dungeon Master.

The monsters are here. Fight them or flee!

The fourth phase is Conflict. After conflict is over, return to exploring the Dungeon.

Basics

Time

The whole conflict will take one dungeon turn.

Time within the conflict is measured in rounds.

A single conflict should not take more than ten rounds.

Mapping

During conflict, its possible to reference a map. But Mapping is impossible, and the Dungeon Master will not make map calls. See page 15.

Fighting

Initiative

Each round, each side rolls a d6. The high roll goes first that round. In a tie, both go at the same time.

Resolution Order

When there are many combatants, its recommended for the Dungeon Master to resolve them in this order.

1 Melee Attacks
2 Ranged Attacks
3 Stunts
4 Magic
5 Flee
6 Slow Attacks

Melee

A melee is a cluster of combatants locked in a brawl. A new melee is formed when enemies come within touch of each other.

Outnumbering

In a melee, if one side outnumbers the other, take note of how much they outnumber.

Outnumbered combatants have their AC increased by their outnumber.

Action

Each round, each combatant gets one action. See page 22.

Many actions will let a combatant move one step during it.

Actions

Melee Attack

If in a melee, make an attack against another combatant in that melee.

If not in a melee, move one step to an enemy, and then make an attack against them.

See page 23.

Ranged Attack

Make a ranged attack. You may move one step before or after. See page 23.

Stunts

Stunts are maneuvers such as tripping, sundering armor, and pinning under chandeliers.

How they are resolved is up to the Dungeon Master. One method is to make a melee attack, success causing an x-in-6 chance, or a saving throw, or an ability check.

Stunts may not cause damage directly.

Suggestions

Forced Move: replace damage with an outnumber-in-6 chance of moving one step.

Intimidation: replace damage with a charisma check, its success forcing a moral check.

Disarming: replace damage with with a dexterity check.

Magic (Spell Casting)

For complete instructions on casting spells, see Magic.

No Disruption: Caster who are successfully attacked or failed a save before their action have their spell wasted.

Flee

Leave a melee if in one, and move two steps. Begin chasing. See page 24.

Attacking

The combat values determines the required roll in order to hit.

The Armor Class (AC) is how likely a target is to be hit.

Attack Value (AV, aka THAC0) is how likely an attack is to miss

Lower AV and AC scores are better.

AV minus AC is the required d20 roll to hit. This equation is used to roll both hitting and dodging.

Hitting An Attack

You hit successfully if AV - d20 < AC.

> Example: AV of 19, minus a roll of 13: “I hit AC 6 (or greater)”.

Resisting An Attack

You fail to resist an attack if AC + d20 > AV.

> Example: AC of 6, plus a roll of 13: “I’m hit by AV 19 (or less)”.

Successful Attacks

Weapons have a damage die, indicating the damage done with a successful hit.

Spells that require a touch need a successful hit against an unwilling target.

Stunts (see page 22) may use an attack roll, giving an alternate effect on a success.

Types

Melee attacks can only be made against touch targets.

Thrown weapons can be made against a close target, but not a touch one.

Fired weapons can reach a close or distant target, but not a touch one.

Ranged attacks can not be made while in a melee. See page 21.

If the target is in a melee, a missed ranged attack has a 4-in-6 chance of hitting a random ally in that melee.

Chasing

Beginning

A chase takes two rounds to begin. During that time, creatures can flee.

When a creature flee, it leaves fighting.

When a chase begins, the aggressing side can either capture all creatures that did not flee, or chase the ones that did. A numerous force may be able to do both.

Ending

Whichever side accumulates a number points first wins. The number is equal to half the number of participants, rounded down.

If the pursuers win, the evaders loose 1 moral, 1 loyalty, take 1 damage, and must surrender or begin fighting, now unable to flee.

If the evaders win, they escape, and the pursuers loose 1 moral.

If one side has superior movement, that side wins automatically after two rounds.

Evading

At the start of each round, the evaders move one step.

Dead Ends

If the evaders run into a dead end, they can either hide (see below), or accept defeat.

Pursuing

Each round, up to two pursuers may make a tracking check.

Then all pursuers move one step.

At the end of the round, if the pursuers can see the evaders, the pursuers gain one point. Otherwise the evaders gain one point.

The pursuers can maintain awareness of the evaders with footprints, scent, sound, or intuition.

Tracking Check

Check wisdom. A successful roll will correctly inform where the evaders are, and score one point for the pursuers.

If tracking by smell or magic, some tracking rolls automatically succeed.

Shake

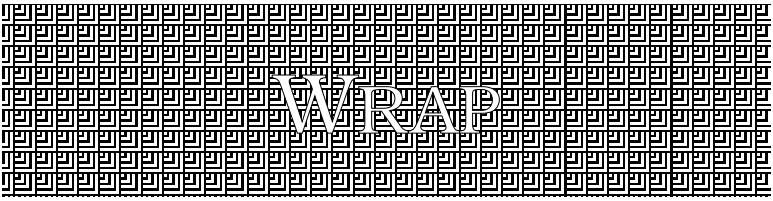

Each round, the evaders may try to shake the pursuers, such as by dropping food or caltrops.

If the shake affects the pursuers, the evaders score two points.

Hiding

The pursuers are unable to see hidden evaders.

When the pursuers succeed a tracking check, they score an additional point for each hiding evader.

The final phase of the game.

Award Experience

See Global page 14.

Divide Treasure

Funerary Rites

See Global page 21.

Evaluate Loyalty

At the end of each session the hirelings evaluate their loyalty.

► If they got a share of treasure greater than their normal wages, they gain one point.

► If an animal or monster got to eat its favorite prey, they gain one point.

► If a hireling died that session, non-monster hirelings loose one point.

► If a hireling or monster completed a goal, they gain one point.

► They may gain or loose more points at the referee's discretion.

OVERVIEW

This booklet covers character classes and abilities, and minions.

This chapter covers the process of creating a character, and attributes which apply to all characters.

For rules on spell casting, see Magic.

For rules on equipment, see Gear

Creating A Character

Get a sheet of paper to record all of your character's details.

1. Roll Ability Scores

Roll 3d6 for Strength, Dexterity, Constitution, Intelligence, Wisdom, and Charisma. These are assigned in order.

Sub-par Characters

If your character has eight or less in all scores, you may begin again.

2. Adjust Ability Scores

You may adjust your ability scores: For each 2 points you reduce from one score, you may increase another score by 1.

No score may be adjusted above 16, or below 6.

Note Bonuses

Note the bonuses, or penalties, from your finalized ability scores. See p4.

3. Choose A Class

There are several classes to choose from. Be sure that you meet the requirements for your class.

The Basic classes have no prerequisites, and are recommended for newcomers.

Unless you chose a Demi-human class, you are a human.

Determine hit points by your health die. You can reroll 1s and 2s.

Record AV (attack value) from the the progression table and dexterity.

Record your saving throw scores from the progression table.

4. Choose Alignment

Choose whether you are Lawful, Neutral, or Chaotic. See p5.

5. Starting Money

Start with 3d6x10 cp. You'll be able to go shopping during Set Up.

6. Note XP And Level

Characters start at 1st level with 0 xp.

Alignment

Beneath the surface of everyday life, two primeval forces mingle. Their servants favor either the cosmic order, or the advent of a new one. Some find themselves neutrally or unaligned, choosing for their own ends, or for the end of balance.

Alignment Language

Creatures automatically recognize a certain set of gestures, signs, and code words, pertaining to their alignment. This allows creatures of common alignment a measure of communication.

Creatures of a different alignment are likely to recognize an alignment language being spoken, but will not understand its content.

Revealing Alignment

Players must reveal their alignment to the referee, but are not required to reveal to each other.

Role Playing Alignment

If the character acts too far out of their alignment, the referee may require them to change their alignment and suffer a penalty.

Monstrous

Monstrous characters face additional challenges:

- ► They are not welcome in urban areas unless accompanied by a human, elf, or dwarf.
- ► They can not employ human hirelings.
- ► They do not automatically know the common language.
- ► When buying equipment, they always use the town price.
- ► When in sunlight, they have a +1 to AC, and AV.

Minions

Minions are NPCs including human and demihumans hired to assist on an adventure, trained animals, and even monsters.

Limit: Each character can be a boss to a finite number of minions, determined by Charisma (see page 4).

Level: Minions must be lower level and have fewer hit dice than their boss

Duties: Most minions are not mindless slaves. If abused minions might desert, mutiny, betray, or slander their boss.

Hirelings

Hirelings are human or demihuman minions that seek employment from the party

Wages

Hirelings must be paid at the start of each session. They come with a starting wage. When a hireling levels up, their wage doubles.

Hirelings will accept a 50% reduction in wages in exchange for a half share of the treasure.

Upkeep

The hiring PC must provide for food and lodging while traveling, as well as for any new adventuring gear, weapons, or mounts.

Recruitment

Hirelings seek employment during Set Up.

Hirelings may recruited directly. See Downtime, page 7.

Animals

Animals do not accept money or treasure. However they do need to be fed, and their abilities are limited by their training. See Downtime, page 5.

Monsters

Occasionally, monsters may be swayed to join the party. Monsters may demand food, treasure, a share of the treasure, or something else as payment.

Monsters with loyalty of 9 or higher will not demand payment.

Loyalty

The starting loyalty of a hireling is indicated by charisma (See page 4).

Loyalty Check

Roll 2d6. The check succeeds if the result is equal to or less than the loyalty.

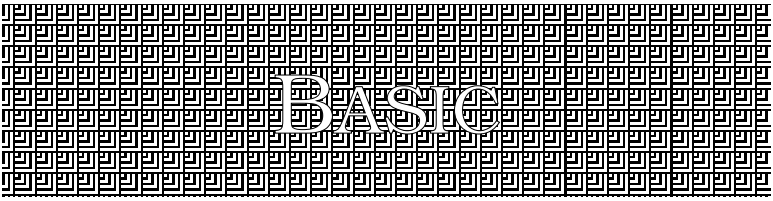

Peril

Before engaging in a perilous task, a hireling will check loyalty. If they fail, they refuse the task.

If they take damage during the task, they loose one loyalty.

Evaluation

Minions evaluate loyalty at the end of each session. See Adventure page 27.

The four basic classes have no prerequisites and are recommended for first time players.

Cleric

Requirements: None
Prime Requisite: Wisdom
Health Die: d6
Maximum Level: 14
Armour: Any, including shields
Weapons: blunt
Languages: Alignment, Common, Ceremonial

Clerics are adventurers who have sworn to serve a deity. They are trained for battle and channel the power of their deity. Their holy doctrine forbids the use of blades or stabbing points.

Turn Undead

Clerics can invoke the power of their deity to repel undead monsters. To turn the undead, roll 2d6. The Dungeon Master consults the table, comparing the roll against the HD of the type of undead present.

Restrictions

Excess: Rolled Hit Dice that are not sufficient to affect a monster are wasted.

Minimum Effect: At least one undead monster will always be affected on a successful turning.

Mixed Groups: If the undead are of different types, those with the lowest HD are affected first.

Recharge: A cleric can attempt to turn only once per turn.

*2HD monster with ability

-: The turning fails.

Number: If the 2d6 turning roll is equal to or greater, the turning succeeds.

T: The turning succeeds.

D: The turning succeeds; the monsters are destroyed.

Successful Turning

If the turning attempt succeeds, the player rolls 2d6 again to determine the number of HD turned/destroyed.

Turned Undead: Will leave the area, if possible, and will not harm or make contact with the cleric.

Destroyed Undead: Are instantly and permanently annihilated.

Divine Magic

See Magic for full details.

Holy Symbol: A cleric must carry a holy symbol to use magic.

Deity Disfavor: Clerics must be faithful to the tenets of their alignment, clergy, and religion. Tenets for all clerics include:

- ► Only using blunt weapons.
- ► Refusal to buy, sell, or use poisons, including alcohol.
- ► 10% tithe to the temple.
- ► Respect of all royalty.

Spell Casting: Once a cleric has proven their faith (from 2nd level), the character may pray to receive spells. The power and number of spells available to a cleric are determined by the character's level. Their spell list is found on Magic page 9.

After Reaching 9th Level

A cleric may establish or build a stronghold. So long as the cleric is currently in favor with their god, a stronghold may be bought or built at half the normal price, due to the aid of the faithful.

Once a stronghold is established, the cleric will attract followers (5d6 × 10 fighters of level 1–2). These troops are completely devoted to the cleric, having a loyalty of 12. The referee decides which proportions of followers are 1st and 2nd level and which are bowmen, infantry, etc.

Fighter

Requirements: None
Prime Requisite: Strength
Health Die: d8
Maximum Level: 14
Armour: Any Weapons: Any
Languages: Alignment, Common

A fighter fights monsters and defend other characters.

Progression

Lv	XP	AV	D	W	P	B	S

13	720k	9	4	5	6	5	8
14	840k	9	4	5	6	5	8

Fighter Skills

At second level, a fighter gains one of these skills. Each even level after that, they gain an additional skill.

► Bounty Hunter: +2 damage with blunt weapons.

► Berserker: While damaged 80% or greater, -4 AV.

► Beef Cake: +3 item slots. +2 healing when bandaged.

► Taction: +4 bonus to Stunts.

Advanced Skills

Starting at 6th level, fighters can choose advanced skills.

► Brutal: Wear a non-magic weapon to get +2 damage.

► Commander: +2 starting loyalty and minion maximum.

► Forge Master: You can do Forging. See Downtime p15.

► Sweep Attack: When outnumbered by monsters of HD < Lv, Attack all such monsters: Make one roll, AV + number of monsters.

► Spell Sword: Learn A 1st level wizard spell. Inscribing a sword or great sword takes 1 week + 50 cp. Once per day, cast while holding the sword.

► Tough: Dismember with advantage. See Global, page 20.

Stronghold

Any time a fighter wishes (and has sufficient money), they can build a castle or stronghold and control the surrounding lands.

After 9th Level

A fighter is granted the title Baron. Their land is then known as a Barony.

Wizard

Requirements: None
Prime Requisite: intelligence
Health Die: d4
Maximum Level: 14
Armour: None
Weapons: Dagger, Staff
Languages: Alignment, Common

Wizards adventure in search of arcane knowledge, rare components, and funds for their research, on their quest to master magical power.

They appear to be still be human.

Arcane Magic

See Magic for full details.

Spell Book: Wizards must carry a spell book to use magic.

Spell Casting: Wizards carry spell books containing the formulae for arcane spells. The table shows the number they may memorize, determined by the character's experience level. Their spell list is found on Magic p12.

After Reaching 11th Level

A wizard may build a stronghold, often a great tower. 1d6 apprentices of levels 1–3 will then arrive to study under the wizard.

After Reaching 14th Level

A wizard undergoes the transformation.

Thief

Requirements: None
Prime Requisite: Dexterity
Health Die: d4
Maximum Level: 14
Armour: Leather
Weapons: Any
Languages: Alignment, Common, Thieves Cant

Thieves make range of a unique set of skills useful both on the edges of society, and in the dungeon. They survive by deception and stealth.

Thieves Cant

Thieves know a general code of conduct, including unique gestures, signs, and code words. This language allows them to communicate, while sounding like innocent small talk to the unfamiliar.

Thief Skills

Thieves are highly talented, and capable of many skills. See the skill progression table opposite.

► Climb Sheer Surfaces (CS): A roll is required for each 100' to be climbed. If the roll fails, the thief falls at the halfway point, suffering falling damage. (1d6 per 10')

► Sneak Die (SD): The thief rolls this die when sneaking. See Global p9.

► Open Locks (OL): Requires thieves' tools (see Gear). A thief can only try this skill once per lock. If the roll fails, the thief may not try the same lock again before gaining an experience level.

► Pick Pockets (PP): If the victim is 4 HD or greater, the thief 's roll is penalized by 5% for every HD more than 4. There is always at least a 1% chance of failure. A roll of more than twice the percentage required for success means that the attempted theft is noticed.

Checking Skills With A Percent Chance: roll d%. If it is the listed value or less, the skill succeeds.

Back-Stab

When attacking an unaware opponent from behind, a thief receives a -4 bonus to AV and rolls triple damage.

Read Languages

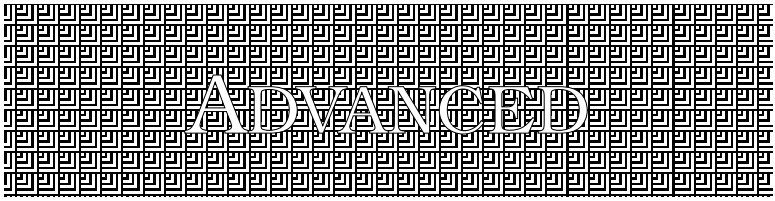

A thief of 4th level or higher can decipher critical portions of non-magical text in any language (including dead languages and basic codes) with 80% probability. If the roll does not succeed, the thief may not try to read that particular text again before gaining an experience level.

Scroll Use

A thief of 10th level or higher can cast arcane spells from scrolls. There is a 10% chance of error: the spell does not function as expected and creates an unusual or deleterious effect.

After Reaching 9th Level

A thief can establish a thief den, attracting 2d6 apprentices of 1st level. These thieves will serve the character with some reliability; however, should any be arrested or killed, the PC will not be able to attract apprentices to replace them. A successful thief might use these followers to start a Thieves' Guild.

► All effects end after 1 turn.

Druid

Requirements: Neutral
Prime Requisite: Wisdom
Health Die: d4
Maximum Level: 10
Armour: Leather, shields
Weapons: Club, dagger, sling, spear, staff. None made of metal.
Languages: Alignment, Common, Druidic, Sylvan

Druids are priests of nature, protecting wild lands from the encroachment of "civilized" Law and the corrupting touch of Chaos. They worship the force of nature itself. Their holy doctrine forbids the use of metal.

Limited Possessions

A druid may only keep wealth and possessions that can be kept on their person or mount. Excess must be donated to worthy causes.

Divine Magic

See Magic for full details.

Holy Symbol: A druid must carry an animal bone in order to cast spells.

Deity Disfavor: Druids must be faithful to the tenets of their alignment and religion. Tenets of the druid include:

- Refusal of metal tools.
- Sanctity of nature.
- Respect of the dead.

Spell Casting: A druid may pray to receive spells. The power and number of spells available to a cleric are determined by the character's level. Their spell list is found on Magic page 10.

Identification

Druids can identify plants, animals and clean water.

Shape Change

At 2nd level, a druid gains the ability to change into animals.

A druid can know as many shapes as their level. Learning a knew shape requires three observations, which must be on unique individuals, and on separate days.

Observation takes one turn and requires the druid to be unnoticed.

Transforming

► Can only be used once per day.

► Lasts a number of turns equal to the druid's level.

► Follows the same rules as spell casting.

► Must be holding the bone or hide of the animal.

► The animal must have hit dice equal to or less than the druid's level.

► If a druid has lost hit points, they regain 1d4 hit points per level upon changing into an animal.

► All equipment carried by the druid is absorbed into the animal form and reappears when the druid changes back.

Nature's Favor

Due to their ability to forage, druids do not need to pay for themselves when Traveling.

Druids get +1 healing when receiving healing from a demihuman, including bandaging.

Pass Without Trace

From 3rd level, a druid can pass through natural environments without leaving any tracks. A druid is also able to move through overgrown areas at normal speed and without impediment

Charm Immunity

Druids of 7th level and above are immune to charms.

Reaching 12th Level And Above

There can only be nine druids of 12th level. When a druid has enough experience to reach 12th level, they must challenge an existing 12th level druid. The character only advances to 12th level if the other druid is defeated. Such challenges may take any form that is agreed by both parties, including combat (which need not be fatal). Likewise, there can only be three druids of 13th level and a single druid (known as the arch-druid) of 14th level.

Druids who attain 12th level or above may have a stronghold magically integrated into a natural setting.

2d12 beings will join the ranger as followers. The nature of these followers is up to the referee.

Knight

Requirements: Constitution 9, Dexterity 9. Alignment.
Health Die: d10
Maximum Level: 14
Armour: Chainmail, platemail, shields
Weapons: All
Languages: Alignment, Common

Knights serve a noble house. At 1st and 2nd level, they are “squires”, not true knights. Upon 3rd level, they are knighted by their liege and gain the right to bear a coat of arms

Alignment: A knight must have the same alignment as their liege.

Chivalric Code

Knights are bound by a code of honor. Breaking code revokes knighthood; they become a fighter (see page 11).

- ► Service of the knight’s liege.
- ► Defense of all in their charge
- ► Sanctity of single combat.
- ► Death over dishonor.

Knightly Combat

- ► Knights gain a -2 bonus to AV when mounted.
- ► Knights gain a -2 bonus to AC when in single combat.
- ► Once per turn, a knight can take the damage of a melee attack directed at an touch ally.
- ► A knight of 5th level or higher can train flying monsters as mounts, of HD equal or less than their level, using 4 weeks of down time. See Downtime page 5.

Hospitality

A knight of 3rd level or higher can expect hospitality and aid from nobles and other knights of the same alignment or social affiliation. A knight is expected to extend such hospitality in kind.

Strength Of Will

Knights are immune to fear effects. From 3rd level, companions within a short distance of the knight gain advantage on saving throws against fear effects, and loyalty rolls.

Princess

Requirements: Charisma 9, Lawful.
Prime Requisite: Intelligence
Health Die: d4
Maximum Level: 14
Armour: Chainmail
Weapons: Dagger, sword, short bow
Languages: Alignment, Common, High Elvish

Princesses are from noble houses, usually women, who direct and lead others. While having little combat training, and rarely adventuring, they are highly motivated.

Equipment: Princesses start with an extra 100 cp.

Royal Status

Princesses can invoke their status to demand parley and fair treatment, even from enemy soldiers and monsters; She has a +2 bonus to Reaction rolls (in addition to the bonus from Charisma). See page 4.

Her minions begin with one additional loyalty.

Hospitality

A princess can expect hospitality and aid from noble of the same alignment or social affiliation. She is expected to extend such hospitality in kind.

Lore

A princess has a 2-in-6 chance of knowing obscure lore pertaining to monsters, magic items, or heroes of folktale or legend.

Inspiration

From 3rd level, the first time each turn a close minion would be slain, they may make a loyalty check, healing 1 on a success.

From 3rd level, when sneaking as a group, the group uses the best sneak check, instead of the average.

Castle

Any time a princess wishes (and has sufficient money), she can build a castle or stronghold and control the surrounding lands.

After reaching 9th level, 3d6 3rd level knights come to serve her.

Warlock

Requirements: 9 charisma, Chaotic.
Prime Requisite: Charisma.

Detect Construction

When searching, dwarves also detect new construction, sliding walls, sloping passages and other stone architectural features. See Error: Reference source not found, page 8.

Infravision

Dwarves have infravision. See Global p11.

Tough

Dwarves dismember with a advantage. See Global, page 20.

Berserker

While a dwarf has damage equal to or greater than 80% of their health, their AV is reduced by 4.

Medic

Dwarves make checks for bandaging with advantage See Global, page 20.

After Reaching 9th Level

A dwarf has the option of creating an underground stronghold that will attract dwarves from far and wide. Dwarves usually live in clans, so dwarves of the character's clan will be attracted to live under their roof. Dwarves from other clans will generally be friendly and clans may collaborate in times of war or disaster.

A dwarf ruler may only hire dwarven mercenaries. However specialists and hirelings of any race may be hired.

Elf

Requirement: Intelligence 9
Prime Requisite: intelligence and strength.

Spells In Order.....15

Strange powers are had by some characters. They utilize this powers using a mystical pattern of trance, which is produced using memorize gestures and words. Though, this power is limited by memory.

There are two types of magic-users.

Arcane Magic: is accessed through esoteric study and a understanding of the world.

Divine Magic: is granted by a higher power, the favor of which must be maintained.

Memory

Casting a spell causes it to be forgotten. Being interrupted while casting will also cause the spell to be forgotten.

Magic-using classes have a magic progression table which shows a number for each of the five levels of spells. This is how many spells can be memorized at a time.

A single spell can be memorized multiple times, creating multiple instances / uses.

Memorization takes one hour, and requires a full night of sleep.

Arcane Magic

When arcane magic-users memorize, the chose spells from their spell book. See p6.

They must choose whether to memorize the normal or reversed version of a spell.

Divine Magic

Divine magic-users pray to receive memory of the spell. They must maintain favor with their deity. See page 5.

They may chose whether to reverse it at the time of casting, by preforming the spell backwards.

Limitations

Spells are cast by reciting a special words and gestures. There are several limitations on these actions:

Freedom: A magic-user must be able to move and speak freely.

Line Of Sight: The target of a spell must be visible to the caster.

Time: Spell-casting takes or one round. If interrupted, the spell is wasted.

Movement: The spell caster must be standing still during the casting.

Quiet: Casting creates quiet noise. See Global, p9.

Resistance: When the target of a spell is unwilling, they may attempt a save against spells. If the spell targets a touched creature, instead the caster must successfully attack them. Some spells specify differently.

Cumulative Effects: Multiple spells cannot be used to increase the same ability.

Range: If the spell doesn't specify the target needing to be touched, close, or in sight, it's target needs to be distant or closer. See Global page 9.

Concentration

Various actions will break concentration.

- Attacking or being attacked
- Taking damage
- Using magic items
- Failing a saving throw
- Sleeping
- Being surprised

Full concentration also imposes status and requires closing ones eyes.

Breaking Concentration

If a spell requires concentration, breaking concentration will end the spell early. This deals damage equal to the spells level to the caster, or twice that if full concentration.

Charms

Some spells are described as charmed. These spells have discrete gestures and signs, that can be preformed in conversation without recognition from an untrained eye.

Some creatures, such as fay, are immune to charms.

Deity Disfavor

Divine magic-users must maintain favor with their god.

Incurring Disfavor

When a divine magic-user goes against their tenants, or casts a spell against their alignment, the Dungeon Master may send them to court.

Alignment

A divine spell-caster's alignment should be the same as their deity.

Chaos favors reversed spells, and Law favors unreversed. Neutral will choose their favor when memorizing.

Casting the wrong orientation of spell will deal 1 damage to the caster, and risk disfavor if done without cause.

Spells without a reversed version are not subject to this.

Court

After potentially incurring disfavor (i.e. after combat has finished), a divine magic-user will be psychically transported to court. They have two options:

Plead Guilty: 1-in-6 chance of not being disfavored.

Plead Not-guilty: Roll 3d6. If there's triples, or the total is less than or equal to your level: not disfavored.

Penalties

Normally, divine magic-users receive any spell they ask for from their spell list. With disfavor, there's a chance they'll receive a random spell, or no spell.

Disfavors	Rand.	None
1	2-in-6	-
2	4-in-6	1-in-6
3	4-in-6	2-in-6
≥4	-	6-in-6

With three or more disfavors, magic-users roll d4s instead of d6s during natural healing.

If disfavored while outside, there is a 1-in-10 chance to be struck by lightening.

Forgiveness

Clerics can forgive disfavor through service to a temple, see Downtime p8.

Disfavor can also be absolved through special quests, rituals, and offerings.

Major Disfavor

An especially bad deed may incur a major disfavor. This counts as three disfavors, and can only be removed by a special quest.

Spell Books

Arcane magic-users begin the game with a spell book in addition to their other gear. The spell book includes one spell from their spell list.

Each level up, they may add another spell from their spell list.

To add additional spells, see Downtime page 16.

Item Slots

Spell books take up 1 item slot, and can contain up to five spells.

To carry more spells, additional spell books must be purchased.

Replacing / Replicating

First a blank spell book must be acquired.

Replicating spells from one's own spell book takes 50 cp and one week per 5 levels of spells.

Replacing a spell that was once memorized takes 100 cp and one week per 1 level of spell.

Spell Lists

Each spell-casting class has a limited number of spells it can learn and use. If a spell isn't on your spell list, you can't learn that spell, nor use spell scrolls of that spell.

The same spell may be different levels for different casting classes.

Animal Friendship

The caster touches an animal, while holding a piece of food. The animal must be

- Neutral alignment
- HD < the caster's level,
- Find the food attractive.

If The Animal Fails A Save Versus Spells: the animal becomes bound to the caster as though by a Lesser Charm. However, the animal will make frequent moral checks.

Minion: After one day, the caster must take the animal as a minion, or end the spell

Higher Levels: If the caster is of 4th level or higher, the spell can instead target all animals, within a short distance, of a species, with 1 HD or fewer.

Animate Dead

This spell turns the bones or bodies of dead creatures into undead skeletons or zombies:

- Obedient: They obey the caster's commands. They have a loyalty of 12.
- Special Abilities: They are unable to use any special abilities that they possessed in life.
- Number: The spell animates a number of Hit Dice of zombies or skeletons equal to the caster's level.
- Minion: After one day, the caster must either take the undead as minions, or end the spell.

Anti-Magic Shell

An anti-magic barrier is created around the caster. It's a 10' radius sphere. It moves with the caster. The caster must concentrate to maintain it.

Blocks Magic: No spells or spell effects can pass through this barrier, whether from inside or outside.

Hyper-magic Sphere

Instead of blocking magic, the sphere has two affects on creatures inside:

► Spell Saves: Two successful saves are required to resist spell effects.

► 1st Level Spells: have a 4-in-6 chance of being remembered when cast.

Barkskin

A touched creature has their skin hardened like bark. They get a -1 bonus to AC, and a +1 bonus to saving throws,

Lasts until fatigued.

Bless

Close allies who are not yet in melee gain a +1 bonus to damage rolls, a +1 bonus to loyalty, and a -1 bonus to AV.

Lasts until fatigued.

Blight

Enemies incurs -1 penalty to damage rolls, a -1 penalty to morale, and a +1 penalty to AV. A save versus spells is allowed to resist the blight.

Charge

The caster commands a close subject to perform or avoid a specific action, or charges them with a quest.

Examples: Bringing a specific item to the caster, eating or drinking without restraint, keeping a certain fact secret. Rescuing a prisoner, killing a specific monster.

Impossible Or Deadly Tasks: The prescribed Charge must not be impossible or directly deadly—if such a Charge is cast, it affects the caster, instead.

Avoidance: The subject must follow the stipulated course of action or suffer gradually increasing (and eventually fatal) penalties determined by the referee.

Remove Charge

Can dispel an active Charge spell and any incurred penalties. If the caster of the Charge to be nullified is higher level than the character casting Remove Charge, there is a chance of the spell failing. The probability is 5% per level the caster is below.

Clairvoyance

For the next 12 turns, The caster gains the ability to see through the eyes of other living creatures.

► Establish Connection: To establish a connection with a close creature, the caster must fully concentrate for one turn.

► After This Turn: The visual perceptions of the last connected creature are relayed to the caster. The caster is blind to their own vision.

Restrictions: The spell is blocked by a thin layer of lead or by rock of 2' thick or greater

Cloudkill

A poisonous fog streams from the caster's fingertips, filling a 3 square diameter area.

► Movement: The fog moves at 6 squares per turn (½ square per round), driven by the wind.

► Sinking: Because the fog is heavier than air, it sinks to the lowest level of the land, even pouring down den or sink hole openings.

► Damage: All creatures in contact with the vapors suffer 1 hit point of damage per round of contact.

► Creatures With Less Than 5 Hit Dice: Must also save versus death (once per round of contact) or die.

Commune

The caster calls upon divine powers in order to seek knowledge. The communion lasts three turns, where the spell caster must be fully concentrating.

The caster may ask three questions per casting. Once per year, the caster may instead ask six questions.

Each question receives a simple "yes" or "no" answer.

Commune may only be cast once per month.

Confusion

This spell causes 3d6 subjects to become charmed for 1 turn:

► Subjects Of 2 HD Or Greater: May save versus spells each round to resist the spell's effect, acting normally each round they succeed.

► Subjects Of 2 HD Or Lower: May not make a saving throw.

Behavior: Roll on the following table separately for each affected subject each round to determine how that subject acts that round:

2d6	Behavior
2-5	Behave normally
6-8	No action
9-12	Attack other charmed creatures

Conjure Elemental

A 16 HD elemental is summoned from an elemental

plane of the caster's choice (air, earth, fire, water) to do the caster's bidding. See Monster page 14.

► Materials: The summons requires a large volume of the appropriate element.

► Full Concentration: Is required to command an elemental.

► Dismissing: While control over the elemental is maintained, the caster may dismiss it at any time, sending it back to its plane of origin.

► Disruption: If the caster's concentration is disturbed, the command over the elemental ends. It is, henceforth, a free willed entity and will immediately try to kill the caster and any who get in its way.

Restrictions: The caster may summon at most one elemental from each plane in a single month.

Dispelling: A conjured elemental may be dispelled by dispel magic or dispel evil.

Contact Higher Plane

The caster has can ask a powerful, otherworldly being for advice and knowledge on any subject.

Plane: The caster must choose which plane of existence to contact. Higher planes are home to more powerful and knowledgeable beings. The spell lasts one turn per level of the plane, and requires full concentration.

Questions: The caster may then ask a number of yes/no questions equal to the number of the plane contacted.

Answers: For each question asked, there is a chance of the contacted being not knowing the answer, or of answering untruthfully.

Restrictions: Contact may be cast at most once per month.

Insanity: Contact has a chance of causing insanity. Insane characters are incapable of action or communication. the recovery time is a number of weeks equal to the number of the plane. For every level of the caster above 10, this chance is reduced by 5%.

Plane	Don't Know	Truth	Insanity
3rd	75%	50%	5%
4th	70%	55%	10%
5th	65%	60%	15%
6th	60%	65%	20%
7th	50%	70%	25%
8th	40%	75%	30%
9th	30%	80%	35%
10th	20%	85%	40%
11th	10%	90%	45%
12th	5%	95%	50%

Continual Light

This spell has three usages:

1 Conjuring Light: An invisible orb appears, which casts light. The magical light is daylight. The spell may be cast upon an object, in which case, the light moves with the object.

2 Blinding A Creature: By casting the spell upon its eyes. If the target fails a save versus spells, it is blinded. A blind creature cannot attack.

3 Cancelling Darkness: Continual light may cancel a continual darkness spell.

Continual Darkness

Creates a 3 square radius area of magical darkness, preventing both normal sight and infravision.

Like continual light, it may alternatively be used to blind creatures or to dispel a continual light spell.

Control Weather

By fully concentrating the caster can control the weather in a quarter mile radius. See Error: Reference source not found, Error: Reference source not found pError: Reference source not found. When concentration is broken, weather returns to normal.

This spell only functions outdoors.

Control Earth

Earth (but not stone) within within a quarter mile, that the caster can see, is rearranged as the caster wishes.

Movement Rate: The caster can move earth in the area at up to 60’ per turn.

Excavations: The range of the spell also extends downwards, allowing excavations to be made

Create Food

The caster reaches into an empty sack. From it, they magically produce food. sufficient for twelve humans and twelve mounts for one day

Higher Level Casters: If the caster is higher than 8th level, food sufficient for an additional 12 humans and mounts is produced for each level beyond 8th.

Destroy Food

The same amount of food within a short distance disintegrates into dust.

Create Water

The caster touches a large stone surface, such as a wall or boulder. A magical font appears from that spot. It produces approximately 50 gallons of water—enough to sustain twelve humans and twelve mounts for one day.

Higher Level Casters: If the caster is higher than 8th level, water sufficient for an additional twelve humans and mounts is produced for each level beyond 8th.

Destroy Water

The spell instead creates a magical drain, which destroys water for one day. Water elemental die instantly when in contact with the drain.

Cure Disease

Cure a touched subject of any disease: Including those of magical origin.

If the subject is a green slime it is killed instantly.

Cause Disease

Inflicts a terrible, withering disease on a victim, if a saving throw versus spells is failed. The disease has the following effects:

- Death: Within 2d12 days.
- Attack Penalty: AV is increased by 2.
- Natural Healing: Takes twice the usual amount of time.
- Magical Healing: Is utterly ineffective.
- Curing: This disease can only be cured with a casting of cure disease.

Cure Wounds

A touched creature heals 1d6+1 damage. Any tapping effects are negated.

Cause Wounds

Inflicts 1d6+1 damage to a touched creature.

Detect Invisible

Close Invisible creatures and items are revealed to the caster.

Lasts until fatigued.

Detect Magic

Enchanted objects, areas, and creatures glow while close to the caster.

Lasts until fatigued.

Dimension Door

A touched creature is instantly transferred to another location up to 360' away. The destination may be selected in two ways:

Known Location: A location, within 360', known to the caster.

An Unknown Location: Specified by a series of offsets (e.g. 120' north, 160' east, 80' up) totaling not more than 360'.

Restrictions: The following apply:

► If the destination is occupied By a solid body, the spell fails.

► If the target is unwilling it may save versus spells to resist the teleportation.

Disintegrate

The material form of a single, non-magical creature or object is instantly and permanently destroyed.

If A Creature Is Targeted: It may save versus death to resist disintegration.

Examples Of Objects: The following might be targeted: a tree, a ship, a 1 square section of wall.

Dispel Evil

This spell has three uses:

► Ward: By fully concentrating for up to one turn, enchanted or undead monsters that come close to the caster may be banished or destroyed. Each monster may save versus spells to avoid banishment or destruction. If a monster's save succeeds, it flees the affected area.

► Target Single Monster: Instantly banish or destroy a single enchanted or undead monster, that's close. The monster may save versus spells (with a –2 penalty) to avoid banishment or destruction. If the monster's save succeeds, it flees the affected area.

► Dispel Curse: Instantly dispel the hold that a cursed item has over a close being.

Dispel Magic

One magical effect is ended.

If the level of the caster of the effect to be dispelled is higher than the level of the caster of dispel magic, there is a 5% chance per level difference that the attempt to dispel will fail.

Magic items are unaffected, unless the caster is of 9th level or higher.

Empower Armor

The armor of a touched creature glow purple, casting dim light for 10'. They gain a -2 bonus to AC, and a +2 penalty to AV.

If the targets isn't wearing armor, the spell fails.

Lasts until fatigued.

Disempower Armor

The armor glows red. The target gain a -2 to AV, and a +2 to AC.

Entangle

Choose a distant or closer point. Plants present in a 2 square radius entangle creatures.

Saving Throw: Each creature in the affected area may save versus spells.

► If The Save Fails: The creature is entangled, cannot move, and has a +2 penalty to AC.

Moving into or out of the area is a step.

Lasts one turn.

Feeblemind

An arcane spell caster within sight must save versus spells (at a –4 penalty) or become an imbecile, unable to think clearly or cast spells.

Find Traps

Trapped objects or areas glow while c*lose* to the caster. Magical and mechanical traps are both detected. No knowledge about the nature of the trap or how to deactivate it is granted.

Lasts until fatigued.

Create Trap

Using chalk, outline an area up to 10' in any direction. When a creature comes within 1' of touching the area, the whole area erupts in flames, dealing 1d8 damage. Then the trap is dispelled.

Fire Ball

Flame streaks towards a point within sight and detonates in a 2 square radius. Creatures caught in the fire ball suffer 1d6 damage per level of the caster, with a successful save versus spells indicating half damage.

Floating Disc

The caster conjures a slightly concave, circular disc of magical force. It appears next to the caster. The disk follows them about and carries loads. The disc is 3' in diameter and 1" deep at its center. It can hold a maximum load of 50 inventory slots, 5,000 coins, or 500 pounds.

The disc floats at waist height and remains level, floating along horizontally.

When the disc winks out at the after 6 turns; anything it was supporting is dropped.

Fly

A touched creature gains the ability to fly through the air. Where they would normally move one step, they can move four.

It's possible in any direction, including to levitate and to hover in mid-air.

Lasts until fatigued three times.

Ground

A touched creature looses the ability to fly.

Greater Charm

This spell has the same effects as Lesser Charm, but affects one of these targets:

► 3d6 creatures of 3 HD or less.

► A single creature of more than 3 HD.

► A single creature of 3 HD or less. 4-in-6 chance of remembering Greater Charm.

Greater Cure Wounds

A touched creature heals 2d6+2 damage.

Greater Cause Wounds

Inflicts 2d6+2 damage to a touched creature.

Growth Of Animal

One non-magical animal is doubled in size and strength when this spell is cast upon it.

The damage inflicted by the animal's attacks is doubled. The amount of weight animal can carry is doubled.

Lasts until fatigued twice.

Shrink of Animal

The animal is instead halved in size.

Growth Of Plants

This spell causes vigorous growth of normal vegetation in an area. Plants in the affected area become thick and overgrown, entwining to form a thorny jungle.

An area of up to 3,000 square feet—selected by the caster—is affected (e.g. 150' × 20', 100' × 30', etc.).

Only very large creatures can force their way through.

Shrink of Plants

Plants in the area wither and die, allowing clear passage.

Hallucinatory Terrain

Hallucinatory terrain either conjures an illusory terrain feature (e.g. a hill, wood, marsh, etc.) or hides an existing terrain feature. The illusion must fit completely within the a 240' radius of the caster.

If the illusion is touched by an intelligent being, the spell is ended.

Haste

Up to 24 creatures are enchanted to be able to move and act twice as quickly as normal:

Movement: Where they would normally move one step, they can move two.

Attacks: Each round, they can make two attacks, or one attack and one stunt.

Magic: The number of spells and uses of magical devices per round is are not doubled

Lasts until fatigued. Then deals 1 damage.

Slow

Up to 4d8 HD of creatures 4HD or less, or one creature of 4HD or more is affected. The creature(s) move half as quickly, only acting every other round.

Heat Metal

All metal in the possession of a touched creature are heated to extreme temperatures.

Dropping Items: A subject who drops all heated objects suffers no further harm.

Water Or Snow: Immersing heated metal negates the harmful effects.

Effects Of Heat: the first round, the subject takes 1d6 damage. Each round after that, they take an additional 1d6 (i.e. 2d6, 3d6, 4d6…) and must save versus magic or sustain permanent injuries.

Lasts one turn.

Hide Gold

Up to 3d6x10 touched coins appear to be worthless debris for the duration. This illusion is solid to the touch, but will be revealed as an illusion by Detect Magic.

The spell lasts for three turns while the caster concentrates.

False Gold

The caster, or a chosen close creature, has 3d6x10 sp appear on their person. The coins appear real on inspection, but will be revealed as an illusion by Detect Magic.

The spell lasts for three turns while the caster concentrates. Then the coins turn to dust.

Hold Monster

Same as hold person but affects any non-undead creature.

Free Monster

Same as Free Person but affects any non-undead creature. A Free Monster spell is instantly ended.

Hold Portal

A door, window, or other kind of portal is magically held shut. Lasts for two shifts.

Opening By Magic: A knock spell opens the portal.

Opening By Force: Creatures with at least 3 HD more than the caster's level can open the held portal with one round of effort.

Hold Person

A person is statused. Lasts 2 turns per level.

Restriction: Persons of 4 HD or greater, and undead, are not affected.

Free Person

A single person is instantly freed from non-magical restraints, and they may make an additional saving throw against magical restraints, with a +4 bonus. hold person is instantly ended.

Insect Plague

A 60’ diameter swarm of flying insects appears within 500’.

► Movement: 20’ per round. While the swarm is within 500’, the caster is able to direct its movements.

► Vision: Within the area of the swarm is obscured.

► Creatures Of 2 HD Or Less: Are driven away, if caught within the swarm.

► Concentration: The caster can fully concentrate on the spell, for up to a day.

Restrictions: The spell has no effect if cast underground.

Infravision

A touched creature is able to see in the dark with infravision. See Global page 11.

Lasts one day.

Invisible Stalker

An invisible stalker (see Monster page 18) is summoned to the caster’s presence and magically bound to perform a mission of the caster’s choosing.

► Wording: The caster must be careful with the wording of the mission. Invisible stalkers will follow the letter of the command while twisting the intent.

► Duration: The creature is bound to attempt the mission until it succeeds or is destroyed.

► Banishing: The spell Dispel Evil will banish an invisible stalker, ending the spell.

Invisibility

The caster or another creature or object becomes invisible:

If Cast On A Creature: Any gear the subject is carrying is also rendered invisible. Items dropped or put down by an invisible creature become visible. If the subject attacks or casts a spell, the invisibility is broken, ending the spell.

If Cast On An Object: The invisibility is permanent.

Light Sources: made invisible (either as part of a creature’s gear or as an individual object), the light it casts is unaffected.

Invisibility 10’ Radius

A touched creature gains an aura of invisibility. When the spell is cast, creatures within 10’ of the subject also become invisible.

► Area: The 10’ radius area of the spell’s effect moves with the chosen creature.

► Exiting The Area: Subjects that move more than 10’ away from the chosen creature become visible.

► Entering The Area: Creatures that move into the area

after the spell is cast do not become invisible.

► Restriction: The invisibility follows the same restrictions and behavior as an Invisibility spell.

Knock

The caster touches a door, which is magically opened by a loud sound. Knock opens stuck, barred, or locked door, as well as gates, chests, and so forth, including magically held doors (e.g. Hold Portal, Wizard Lock).

Know Alignment

The caster gains immediate knowledge of the alignment of one close character, monster, object, or location

Obscure Alignment

For 6 turns, a touched creature is affect by magic as though they had the alignment of the caster's choosing.

Lesser Charm

A close person is charmed, as follows:

► Friendship: The subject regards the caster as its trusted friend and ally.

► Commands: The caster may give the charmed creature commands, which it will obey, if it understands, it is not obviously self destructive, and does not conflict with their alignment or religion.

Restrictions: Human-like monsters of greater than 4 HD and undead are not affected.

Duration: The charm lasts indefinitely, but the subject is allowed to make further saves versus spells at intervals, depending on its intelligence. If one of these saves succeeds, the spell ends.

► ≤8: New save each month.

► 9–12: New save each week.

► 13–17: New save each day.

► ≥18: New save each hour.

Levitate

This enchantment allows the caster to move up and down through the air:

► Movement: The caster is not granted any additional movement, and must push against solid objects to move.

► Weight: An encumbered creature will sink to the ground.

Lasts until fatigued.

Light

This spell has three usages:

Conjuring Light: A magical light appears. The spell may be cast upon an object, in which case the light moves with the object.

Blinding A Creature: A creature becomes blind.

Cancelling Darkness: Cancel a Darkness spell.

Darkness

Creates a 2 square diameter area of magical blackness, preventing normal sight (and infravision). Like light, it may alternatively be used to blind creatures or to dispel a light spell.

Lightning Bolt

A powerful stroke of electrical energy extends from the caster's fingers. It is 180' long and 5' wide. Creatures caught in the lightning bolt suffer 1d6 damage per level of the caster. A successful save versus spells prevents half of the damage.

Bounce: If the lightning bolt hits a solid barrier before its full length is reached, it is reflected and continues to its full length.

Locate Monster

Same as Locate Object but can locate any creature, magical or non-magical.

Locate Object

For six turns, the caster can sense the direction (but not distance) of an object, within a long distance.

This spell has two uses:

- General Class: (e.g. a stairway, an altar). The nearest object of that type is located.
- Specific Object: The caster must clearly visualize in all aspects.

Restrictions: This spell cannot be used to locate creatures.

Locate Plant Or Animal

Same as Locate Object but locates a non-magical, non-human, plant or animal, of 4 HD or less.

Locate Person

Same as Locate Object but locates a person, of 4 HD or less.

Massmorph

A force of human-sized creatures within a 240' diameter area is veiled by illusion to appear as a copse of trees or orchard.

Moving Through: Once the illusion is in place, even creatures moving among the veiled subjects are deceived.

Subjects Who Leave The Affected Area: Cease to be veiled.

Dismissing: The caster may dismiss the illusion in its entirety at any time.

Magic Missile

This spell conjures a glowing dart of energy shoots at a target of the caster's choice. The missile hits unerringly (no attack roll). The missile inflicts 1d6+1 damage.

Higher Level Casters: May conjure more missiles. They may be directed at a the same or different targets.

Lv	Number of Missiles
6-10	3

Mirror Image

1d4 illusory duplicates of the caster appear. The mirror images look and behave exactly as the caster. Attacks on the caster destroy one of the mirror images (even if the attack misses).

Ends when fatigued, or when the last duplicate is destroyed.

Neutralize Poison

This spell has two uses:

► Creatures: Neutralize the effects of poison on a touched creature. A creature who has died from poisoning can be revived, if neutralize poison is cast within one turn.

► Items: Remove poison from a touched item.

Cause Poison

The touched creature becomes poisoned unless they save versus death. Each turn, they're tapped, and take 1d4 damage, until they die or are cured.

Obscuring Mist

A cloud of misty vapor emanates from the ground, filling the air close to the caster. The mist is 10' high and blocks vision, including infravision.

The caster can see faintly through the mist.

Lasts one turn per level. Winds reduce the spell's duration by three quarters

Clear Mist

The area around the caster has mist pushed out by a gentle breeze, enabling clear vision.

Lasts until fatigued.

Pass-Wall

The caster touches solid stone. A 5' diameter hole is temporarily opened, forming a passage-way up to 10' deep.

After a shift, the passage seals, without a trace.

Part Water

The caster creates a path 10' wide and a maximum of 120' long through water, such as a pond, lake, or other body. Lasts six turns. The caster can dismiss the spell's effect before the duration ends.

Phantasmal Force

A visual illusion of the caster's choosing manifests in a 20' cube area, within sight. Three types of illusions may be created:

► An Illusionary Monster: That can be directed to attack. The monster has an Armour Class of 9 and will vanish if hit in combat.

► An Illusionary Attack: For example, an avalanche, a falling ceiling, a magic missile, etc. Targets who save versus spells are unaffected.

► A Scene: Either changing the appearance of the affected area or creating the appearance of something new. The scene disappears if touched.

Restrictions: The following apply:

► Full Concentration

► Illusionary Monsters Or Attacks: May appear to be harmful but no real damage is ever inflicted. A character who appears to die actually falls unconscious, a character turned to stone will actually be paralyzed, and so on. Such effects last for 1d4 turns.

Polymorph Others

A close creature is changed into another type of creature, as chosen by the caster:

► HD: The spell fails if the new HD is more than twice the subject's HD.

► Damage: The subject retains the same amount of damage.

► Abilities: The subject truly becomes the new form: all special abilities are acquired, along with behavioral patterns, tendencies, and intelligence.

► Specific Individuals: The spell cannot be used to duplicate a specific individual.

► Reversion: If the subject dies, it returns to its original form.

Polymorph Self

The caster transforms themselves into another being.

► HD: The new form may not have higher Hit Dice than the caster's level.

► Stats: The caster retains their own intelligence, hit points, saving throws, and AV.

► Physical Capabilities: Of the new form (e.g. strength, physical attack forms, modes of movement) are acquired.

► Non-physical Special Abilities: (e.g. immunities, breath weapons, spell casting) are not acquired.

► Casting Spells: While polymorphed, the caster is unable to cast spells.

► Specific Individuals: The spell cannot be used to duplicate a specific individual.

► Reversion: If the caster dies while polymorphed, they return to their original form

Lasts until fatigued twice.

If the caster is of at least 10th level, they may choose to have the spell never end.

Predict Weather

The caster gains accurate knowledge of the weather over the next 12 hours, within a number of miles equal to their level.

Projected Image

An illusory duplicate of the caster appears within range. Lasts for six turns.

► Duplicate: The image is an exact duplicate of the caster that can only be differentiated by touch.

► Subsequent Spells Cast: Appear to originate from the image. (Targets must still be visible to the caster, however.)

► Spells And Missiles: The image appears unaffected by spells or missile weapons.

► Melee Or Touch: If the image is touched or hit in melee, it disappears.

Protection From Chaos

Wards the caster from attacks by chaotic creatures, as follows:

+1 bonus to saving throws against attacks or special abilities.

-1 bonus to AC when being attacked.

Lasts until fatigued.

Protection from Law

Provides the same wards, but against lawful creatures.

Protection From Chaos 10' Radius

Provides the same ward as Protection from Chaos to all creatures within 10' of the caster.

Lasts until fatigued.

Protection from Law 10' Radius

Provides the same wards, but against lawful creatures.

Protection From Fire And Lightning

A touched creature gains protection against 6 damage, per level of the caster, from lightning and fire.

Ending: When all of the protection is used up, the spell end. The spell also ends after being fatigued.

Protection From Normal Missiles

A chosen close creature gains complete immunity to small, non-magical missiles (e.g. no protection is granted against hurled boulders or enchanted arrows)

Lasts until fatigued.

Protection From Poison

A touched creature gains a ward against poisons. Any poisons that are actively affecting the subject are neutralized.

Venom: Complete immunity is granted against venomous attacks of monsters (e.g. bites) and poisonous gases (including those conjured by magic).

Breath Weapons: The subject gains a +4 bonus to saving throws against poisonous breath weapons.

Lasts until fatigued.

Purify Food And Water

Makes spoiled, rotten, poisonous, or otherwise contaminated food and water pure and suitable for eating and drinking. One of the following may be affected:

- Drink: 6 quarts.
- Rations: One ration
- Unpreserved Food: A quantity sufficient for 12 human-sized beings.

Raise Dead

This spell has two uses:

► Restore Life: To a recently deceased person. The caster can raise an unburied corpse that has been dead for no longer than four days per level of the caster above 7th. See Global page 21 for the effects resurrection.

► Destroy Undead: A single undead monster is destroyed.

Finger of Death

Directs a ray of deadly magic at a single target. If the target fails a saving throw versus death, it dies instantly.

Read Languages

Until fatigued, the caster may understand any written language, including coded messages, maps, and other written instructions. This spell does not grant any ability to speak unknown language.

Remove Language

Causes one close target to loose the ability to speak or understand language.

Read Magic

For one turn, the caster can decipher magical inscriptions or runes, as follows:

Scrolls: The magical script of a scroll of arcane spells can be understood. The caster is then able to activate the scroll at any time in the future.

Spell Books: A spell book written by another arcane spell caster can be deciphered.

Inscriptions: Runes or magical words can be understood.

Reading Again: Once the caster has read a magical inscription using Read Magic, they are thereafter able to read that particular writing without recourse to the use of this spell.

Reincarnation

A dead character is returned to life in a new physical form that manifests in the presence of the caster. The character's new body is not necessarily the same as the original; it is determined by rolling on the Reincarnated Class table. The roll indicates either a character class or a monster:

Character Class: The character is of experience level 1d6 lower than they were in life.

Monster: The type should be deter mined by the referee. The tables opposite may be used, or the referee may create their own tables. Monsters cannot gain experience or advance in level.

Death Spell

Choose a point within 240'. Up to 4d8 Hit Dice of creatures within a 3 square radius must save versus death or die, instantly.

Restrictions: Undead and creatures with >7 HD are unaffected.

Remove Curse

Remove curse instantaneously removes one curse from a touched creature. It may allow a character to discard a cursed magic item.

Curse

Places a deleterious effect upon a touched creature or object.

The exact form and effects of the curse are determined by the caster. Maximum possible effects include:

► A –2 penalty to saving throws.

► A +4 penalty to AV or AC.

► Reducing an ability score by 50%

► Unable to put down the item.

Multiple Curses: May afflict a creature, as long as each has a different effect.

Remove Fear

The creature touched is calmed and purged of fear. Magically induced fear is also dispelled.

Lasts until fatigued.

Cause Fear

Will cause a chosen creature to flee unless it saves versus spells.

Lasts until fatigued.

Resist Fire

All close creatures are protected from fire, as follows:

► Normal Heat: Unharmed by non-magical heat or fire.

► Save Bonus: Gain a +2 bonus to all saving throws versus fire-based magical or breath attacks.

Resist Cold

Protects from cold and ice instead of fire and heat.

Shadow Hound

A dog made of black smoke appears before the caster. It obeys all spoken orders with absolute obedience until it is destroyed, or after a number of turns equal to the caster's level.

Shadow Hound

Black smoke in the shape of a large dog, with excellent sense of smell.

AC 7, HD 1+2 (6hp), Att 1 × bite (1d6), AV 18, MV 180' (60'),

SV D12 W13 P14 B15 S16 (1), ML 12, AL Lawful, XP 15

► Tracking: By scent. Once started, very difficult to put off the trail.

Shield

Shield creates an invisible field of force that protects the caster for two turns.

Against missile attacks: The caster's AC is 2.

Against other attacks: The caster's AC is 4.

Against Magic: Breath attacks and magic that allow a save for half damage, instead deal no damage with a successful save.

Against Magic Missile: Shield will completely prevent Magic Missile.

Silence

Choose a point within a long distance. A 15' radius area is rendered silent. Conversation and spell casting are impossible. Noise from outside the area can be heard by those within it.

Silence may be cast upon a creature, which saves versus spells. If the save fails, the area of silence moves with the creature. If the save succeeds, the spell's effect remains stationary—the creature may move out of it.

Lasts until fatigued twice.

Noise

The area is instead filled with magical noise, only heard by those within it. Conversation is impossible. Noise from outside the area can not be heard from within. Spells can be cast if the caster first succeeds a save versus spells.

Sleep

A sleep spell causes a magical slumber for 4d4 turns. The spell may target either: A single creature with 4 HD, or a total of 2d8 HD of creatures of 4 HD or lower each. Undead are unaffected. Targets do not get a save versus spells.

When targeting multiple creatures, sleep targets creatures with the least HD are first. Rolled HD not sufficient to affect a creature are wasted.

Creatures enchanted by this spell are helpless and can be killed instantly with a bladed weapon. Slapping or wounding awakens an affected creature.

Snake Charm

One or more snakes are rendered non-hostile, rearing up and swaying to and fro, but not attacking.

The spell affects snakes whose total HD do not exceed the caster's level. e.g a 7th level caster can affect 7 HD of snakes: equal seven 1 HD snakes, or two 3 HD snakes and one 1 HD snake, etc.

Duration: When cast on snakes that are already attacking, the spell lasts for 1d4+1 combat rounds. Otherwise, it lasts for 1d4+1 turns.

Snake Discord

Instead, the snakes enter a rage, recklessly attacking other snakes, then other reptiles, than any moving object.

Speak With Animals

The caster gains the ability to speak with animals.

This spell doesn't make animals any more friendly or cooperative than normal.

The caster can ask questions, or even for small favors.

Lasts until fatigued

Speak With Dead

Same as Speak with Animals but enables speech with with corpses and undead. They answer as they would in life.

Speak With Plants

Same as Speak with Animals but enables speech with with plants, including monstrous plants.

Speak With Stones

Same as Speak with Animals but enables speech with with stones, and earth elementals.

Summon Animals

Normal animals within 500' are summoned to the caster's aid. The caster may choose to limit the summons to creatures of specific species.

► Restrictions: Insects, arachnids, and other bugs are not summoned. Magical creatures are not summoned.

► Number of animals: A number of animals of total Hit Dice equal to the caster's level will respond to the summons.

► Small animals: Normal, small animals (e.g. mice, sparrows, squirrels, etc.) are treated as one tenth of a HD.

Summoned creatures: Behave as follows:

► Arrival: They will come to the caster's location as fast as they can.

► Comprehension: They understand the caster's words while the spell lasts.

► Aid: They will aid the caster in whatever way they can. If the caster is being attacked: The summoned animals will attack the enemy, only fleeing if they fail a morale check.

Once an animal flees: The spell is broken for that animal.

Lasts until fatigued.

Sticks To Snakes

2d8 normal sticks are miraculously transformed into snakes that follow the caster's orders. When killed or the spell ends, they revert to sticks.

Poison: There is a 50% chance of the snakes being poisonous.

Lasts until fatigued.

Conjured Snakes

AC 6 , HD 1 (4hp), Att 1 × bite (1d4), AV 19, MV 90' (30'), SV D12 W13 P14 B15 S16 (1), ML 7, AL Neutral, XP 10 (13 if poisonous)

Snakes to Sticks

2d8 HD of snakes HD 4 or less are turned into sticks.

Lasts until fatigued.

Stone To Flesh

This spell transforms stone into living flesh. It is especially useful for restoring life to a petrified creature and its equipment to its normal state.

Flesh to Stone

Turns one creature into a statue, including all gear and any items currently held. A saving throw versus paralysis is permitted to resist the transformation

Striking

One weapon within a short distance is enchanted to deal an additional 1d6 damage, and becomes a magical weapon.

Lasts one turn per level.

Telekinesis

The caster concentrates for up to six rounds. During that time, they are able to mentally move objects or creatures within a long distance.

► Weight: Up to 2 item slots, or 50 lb, per level of the caster may be moved at once.

► Movement: The target may be moved up to 20' per round, in whatever direction the caster wishes

Telepathy

Grants the caster the ability to perceive and understand the thoughts of other creatures.

When the spell begins, the caster is assaulted by the thoughts of all creatures within a long distance. They are incomprehensible, but reveal the location of the creature.

By fully concentrating on single creature, the caster can perceive and understand that creatures thoughts.

The thoughts of magical creatures may be dangerous.

Lasts one turn per level

Obstructions: The ability to perceive thoughts is obstructed by a thin layer of lead or by rock of 2' thick or greater.

Teleport

A touched creature disappears and reappears at a location of the caster's choosing, including its gear

Destination: May be at any distance, but must be known to the caster. The destination must be an open space at ground level. (It is not possible to intentionally teleport the subject into mid-air or into solid matter.)

Risk: There is a risk, when teleporting, of accidentally arriving above or below ground level. The chance of a successful teleportation depends on the caster's knowledge of the destination (see right). Roll d% and consult the table

Know. of Dest.	Ground Level	Too High	Too Low
Scant	01–50	51–75	76–00
Medium	01–80	81–90	91–00
Exact	01–95	96–99	0

► Ground level: The subject appears at the desired destination.

► Too high: The subject appears 1d10×10' above the intended destination. Should this location already be occupied by solid matter, the subject is instantly killed. Otherwise, the subject falls from a height.

Knowledge of destination: The caster's knowledge of the destination is rated as follows:

► Scant: A location that the caster has visited once or twice, has seen by magical scrying, or has heard of from descriptions.

► Moderate: A location that the caster has visited often or has studied via scrying for several weeks.

► Exact: A location that the caster has made a detailed study of, in person

Tree Shape

The caster takes on the form of a living or dead tree. The tree form is completely realistic, even to close inspection.

While in this form, the caster can perceive the surroundings with their normal senses.

The caster may end the spell at will, returning to their normal form.

Ventriloquism

The caster may make their voice appear to come from any location or source (e.g. a statue or animal) within a short distance.

Lasts until fatigued.

Wall Of Fire

An immobile, opaque curtain of fire springs into existence. It remains as long as the caster fully concentrates.

► Size: The wall can be any size, shape, and dimensions the caster desires, up to 1,200 sq. ft. The wall may not appears where objects are.

► Monsters with <4 HD: Cannot pass the wall of flames.

► Monsters with ≥4 HD: Take 1d6 hit points of damage when they pass through the wall. The wall deals double damage to undead creatures or creatures that use cold or are accustomed to cold.

Wall of Ice

An immobile, translucent, wall of ice springs into existence. Functions the same as wall of fire with the following changes:

► Damage: extra damage is dealt to creatures that use fire or are accustomed to fire.

Wall Of Stone

A wall of solid rock appears.

Size: The wall may be of whatever shape the caster desires and is of 1,000 cubic feet in volume. (For example, a 2' thick wall, 50' long and 10' high.)

Location: The wall must rest upon a solid surface and may not be evoked so that it appears where objects are.

Wall of Air

The wall functions the same as the wall of stone, but is made of an invisible air current. It lasts for 12 turns.

Warp Wood

Wooden objects of the caster's choice warp and become useless. One small object is affected per level of the caster. Or, one large objects may also be targeted.

Magical objects: That are targeted have a chance of being unaffected.

Held Objects: Creatures may save versus spells to prevent their held objects from being warped.

Water Breathing

A touched creature can breathe water freely by means of this spell.

The spell does not affect the subject's ability to breathe air. No additional proficiency at swimming is granted

Lasts one day.

Air Breathing

Allows a subject to breath air. No additional walking ability is granted.

Water Breathing 15' Radius

Same as Water Breathing, but affects the caster, and all creatures a within 15'.

Air Breathing 15' Radius

Same as Air Breathing, but affects the caster, and all creatures a within 15'.

Web

Duration: 48 turns

Range: 10’

Web conjures a many-layered mass of strong, sticky threads, blocking a 10’ cube area.

Entanglement: Creatures caught within a web become entangled among the gluey fibres. Entangled creatures can’t move, but can break free depending on their strength (see below).

Flammable: The strands of the web are flammable and can be destroyed by fire in two rounds. All creatures caught within flaming webs suffer 1d6 points of damage from the flames.

Breaking free: Depends on STR:

Normal human range: The creature can break free in 2d4 turns.

Magically augmented STR above 18: The creature can break free in 4 rounds.

Giant strength: The creature can break free in two rounds.

Wizard Lock

A wizard lock spell magically locks a touched door, gate, or any item that has a lock or latch.

Bypassing: The magical lock is permanent but may be temporarily bypassed as follows:

► Password: The caster sets a password at the time of casting. Speaking the password disables the lock for one round.

► A Knock spell: Disables the lock for one round.

► Higher level casters: Any magic-using character who is at least 3 levels higher than the caster of the wizard lock may pass through unimpeded.

Wizard Eye

One of the casters eyes pops harmlessly out of their head. It becomes transparent, nearly invisible and begins to fly.

► Movement: The eye is mentally directed by the caster. It can be moves up to 120’ per turn, and up to 240’ from the caster. Solid barriers block passage, but it can pass through a hole or space as small as 1 inch in diameter

► Types of vision: The magical eye grants both normal vision and infravision. See Error: Reference source not found, Infravision p11.

When the caster becomes fatigued, the eye floats slowly to the ground. If not placed in the casters head within 1 turn,

the eye is lost.

Downtime

Contents

Downtime a solo game that can be played during Set Up.

Basic downtime is available to all characters.

Advanced downtime is only available to characters who meet certain requirements.

Merit

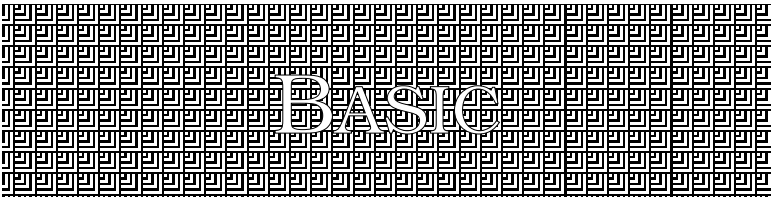

Some activities grant merit. Once Set Up finishes, a charater's merit (if any) is reduced to their level.

Boons

Boons are enchantments that attach to ones aura. They occupy an item slot, but can not be transferred or stored.

Once a boon is used, it is destroyed.

Boons can be bought with merit, while preforming certain activities.

BASIC

Animal Training

Placeholder

Carousing

Go out gambling, drinking, and cruising. A week of carousing costs 10 cp.

Gambling

You can play up to ten games of dragon ante. The buy for each game is 1 cp. Roll a d20 and see the result.

D20	Result
1	Jail! Pay a 10 cp fine, and preform a week of service.
2	Loose horribly. Pay 25 cp.
3-15	Loose your buy in.
16	Win 2 cp!
17	Win 3 cp!
18	Win the opportunity to play twice more!
19	Win 25 cp, anger a local.
20	Challenge the red dragon: Roll a d12. On a 1, you pay 1 sp. On a 12, you can either win 5 sp, or challenge Tiamat: roll 2d6; if you roll doubles you win 1 gp, 2 ep, 3 sp, 4 cp.

Collecting Rumors

While gambling, there is a 2-in-6 chance you'll hear relevant rumors. If so, the referee will give them to you.

Finding A Mentor

Searching for a mentor takes one week and 20 cp. You can select for class, and level.

Once found, the mentor can be hired. Most accept monetary wages, but clerics ask for one week of service instead of money. Wizards must be paid at least half in gemstones.

After each service, there is a 9-in-10 chance they remain open to tutoring you.

Odds Of Finding

Decide the class, and level you are seeking. Then calculate the odds. The chance of knowing a particular spell is 2-in-6.

Class	Odds out of 100	Wages per week (gp)
Cleric	50 – Lv	-
Demi-human	40 – Lv	Lv + 3
Fighter	70 – Lv	Lv
Thief	40 – Lv	Lv x 2
Wizard	60–(Lv x 2)	Lv^2
Other	30	10

> Example: Elron is seeking a 5th level Error: Reference source not found that knows Fire Ball. The odds are 70 – 5 = 65%. They roll 44 on percentile and find Glynyek the Wise. Unfortunately, they do not know Fire Ball.

Healing

Spending time at a temple will increase healing. A one week stay costs 1 gp, or one week of service, and will restore all hit points.

Recruiting

Get more hirelings

Selling

Finding and selling rare items.

Each week you can find buyers for a number of cp equal to 100 times your level. If an object is more valuable than that, you must work for multiple weeks to sell it.

True Merchant: For each 1 merit spent, sell an additional 10%.

Sale

When you sell the item, roll a d20 on the table and add you reaction modifier to see how much higher or lower than the list price you got.

If you get a low ball, you can refuse to sell.

D%
1	Robbed! 0%
2-10	Low Ball: 75%
11-20	Low Ball: 90%
21-80	Asking Price: 100%
80-90	Tipped: 110%
100	Swindler! 200%

Service

Temples are always in search of volunteers. Most are there drafted for penants.

Forgiveness

Divine magic-users can forgive one disfavor.

Crime

Service may be required because of a crime. The next week must be used on service.

Merit

The second time you preform service, you gain one merit. Each time after that, you gain three merit.

Alignment

Depending on your alignment, you can choose one special oppertunity during service.

Lawful and Chaotic may choose to act as neutral.

Lawful

► Gain 1d4-1 merit.

► If you have a cleric mentor, you can count service done for other reasons for their payment.

► True Service: Costs 4 merit. Using this boon counts as a week of service.

Neutral

► Gain 10 times your level XP.

► 1-in-12 chance Gain a small favor with a templer leader.

► True Valor: Costs 4 boon points. When an ally is attacked in melee, redirect it to yourself.

Chaotic

► Pay 40 cp to have a goon do your service for you.

► If you are 4th level or higher, you can pay 100 cp to bribe a clerk to mark your service as already done.

► "Earn" Level d6 cp.

► True Pain: Costs 10 boon points. Instead of rolling, deal the maximum amount of damage on one weapon damage roll.

Team-building

Spend the week attending leadership seminars, and making topped flat bread to enjoy with your minions.

Costs 1 sp per minion. Each participating minion has a 2-in-6 chance of gaining 1 loyalty, to a maximum of 8.

Boons

Each minion that gains loyalty yields 2 merit.

True Loyalty: Costs 6 merit. One loyalty check automatically succeeds.

True Valor: Costs 4 merit. When an ally is attacked in melee, redirect it to yourself.

Training

While you were Carousing, I studied the blade.

Mentoring

Roll a d20. If you roll your level or less, you find a pupil to train. If you do not, you can do a different downtime activity.

Acting as a mentor pays 90cp times your level and grants 2d4 merit.

True Dodge: Costs 4 boon points. Half the damage from one non-magical attack.

True Strike: Costs 15 boon points. Have a AV of 10 for one weapon attack.

True Pain: Costs 10 boon points. Instead of rolling, deal the maximum amount of damage on one weapon damage roll.

True Valor: Costs 4 boon points. When an ally is attacked in melee, redirect it to yourself.

Pupiling

You must find a mentor of the same class but a higher level. See p6.

Gain 12d20 XP.

For an additional 10 cp, up to three minions of the same class can train with you, and gain half the XP that you do.

Job Search

Spend the week looking for a job. Spend 10 XP for the privillage.

Roll a 3d6 to determine what kind of job you've been offered. Then make a charisma check to see if you secure the offer.

3d6	Job	Wage
3-8	None	-
9-13	Tavern Hand	4 cp
14-16	Store Clerk	6 cp
17	Blacksmith Assistant	1 sp
18	Wizard Assistant	5 sp

Store Clerk

d6	Business
1	Apothecary
2	Carpenter
3	Dungeon Supply
4	Fletcher
5	General Store
6	Stables

Blacksmith's Assistant

d6	Business
1-3	General Store
4-5	Weapon Smith
6	Armor Smith

Working

If you do not have a job, you must find one first. See page 10.

Roll a d10 to determine the results of your work week.

d10	Result
1	Fired: No wages + loose job
2-8	Normal: Receive wages
9	Tipped: Receive double wages
10	Promotion: See Below

Promotion

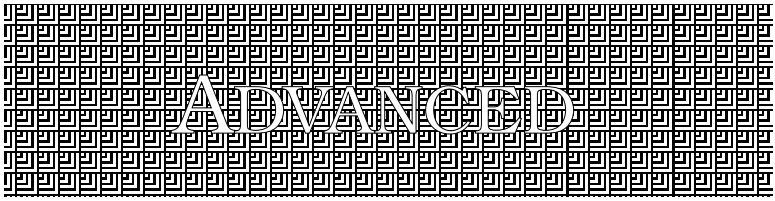

Upon receiving a promotion, your wages are increased by 20%. You receive your old wage for that week. Next time you work, you will have a higher title, and the new wage.

Employee Discount

Store clerks and blacksmith assistants get a 10% discount at their business.

Tavern hands get free beer.

Wizard assistants have a 1% discount on Magical Research.

ADVANCED

Crime

Only thieves, acrobats, felidae , kobold and warlocks can pursue crime.

Heist

A heist is a single large crime, or crime spree. Get a note card to keep track of your progress on the heist.

Planting A Tree

Scoping out a new heist takes one week. Write the location and the target on your heist card.

Roll a number of d8 equal to your level. This is the value of the heist in sp.

Roll a d6. This is the maximum progress of the heist.

Roll 2d4. This is the risk of the heist.

Boredom

If your up for a challenge, the risk of the heist becomes 10, and the value becomes gp.

Risk

Whenever you take a risk, make a sneak check against an OC equal to the heat of the heist.

If you fail, you loose you blunder your heist, pay a fine equal to twice the value of the heist, and must preform a week of service.

Loosing a Glove

If you are unable to pay the fine, you instead have a hand cut off.

Paying The Prigs

Finding an accomplice, such as an adam tiler, or an amuser. It takes one week. Each accomplice takes a 10% cut, but gives a +1 bonus on risk.

Add your accomplice's name to the heist card.

Rounder

You can take on another character as an accomplice. Doing so doesn't take any down time, and allows them to paying the prigs and bite the blow on the heist.

Bite The Blow

Take a risk to removes one progress, and get paid 10% of the value.

Grease Hamlet

Take a risk to bribe a local official. Costs 100 cp, ignore the next three risks.

Finishing The Fence

When a heist has no progress left, take one final risk to end the heist, and pay out 100% of the heists value.

Devotion

Only divine magic-users can preform devotion.

You have a 3-in-6 chance of getting 5 merit.

Lawful

True Aid: Costs 7 merit. One successful bandage restores the maximum number of hit points.

True Valor: Costs 4 boon points. When an ally is attacked in melee, redirect it to yourself.

Neutral

True Spell: Costs 14 merit. 3-in-6 chance of remembering a spell when cast.

True Intuition: Costs 4 boon points. Search in just 1 round.

Chaos

True Feign: Costs 4 merit. Dismember with advantage.

True Dodge: Costs 4 boon points. Half the damage from one non-magical attack.

Forging

Only dwarves (and some fighters) can forge. Choose one option and gain 1d3 merit.

Honing

Costs 10 cp. A honed weapon deals an additional d4 damage. When rolling a 4 on that bonus, the honing fades.

Repair

Costs 10 cp. Remove all mundane damage and wear from one item.

Construction

You can make any weapon. See Gear page 5. Calculate the total points of the weapon being constructed:

Properties	Points
d4 or d6	1
d8	4
d10 or d12	7
blunt	4
fired	11
charge	4
melee	4
risky	14
slow	2
splash	7
thrown	7
two-handed	2

Each week of construction costs 5 cp. you progress 1d6 points towards completion.

Magical Research

Only magic-users can preform magical research.

Adding To A Spell Book

Arcane magic-users can only add to their own book, and only spells on their spell list. See Magic page 8

Assimilating Spells

All spells must be identified with Read Magic, and takes one week per spell level.

Spell Scrolls

Cost 1 gp per spell level. Destroys the scroll

Success Rate: (80 + your intelligence score)%.

Captured Spell Books

Cost 3 gp per spell level

Success Rate: (50 + your intelligence score)%.

Mentoring

You can learn a spell from a mentor. See Finding a Mentor p6. In addition to the mentor's wages, studies cost 5 sp and one week, per spell level.

Creating New Spells

The player describes in detail the spell they wish to create. The referee decides if the spell can be created.

The spell must be of a level the character can cast. Research takes two weeks and 100gp per spell level.

Creating Magic Items

Characters of 9th level or higher can create magic items. The player describes in detail the item that they wish. The referee decides whether this is possible and, if so, what materials are required.

Restrictions

Divine spell casters May only create items that they are able to use themselves. Arcane spell casters may create any item except those that may only be used by divine spell casters.

Materials

Creating magic items requires rare components such as expensive gems or ingredients from rare monsters.

Cost and Time

If duplicating the effects of a spell, construction costs one week and 5g, per level of the mimicked spell, multiplied by the number of uses.

The referee must use discretion for other items. As a general rule, items should cost from 100 to 1000gp and from 4 to 52 weeks to complete.

Other

Possibilities include: sanctifying a holy site, creating constructs, or opening portals.

MONSTERS

Morale

Monsters behave brashly if their morale is broken.

Morale Score

Morale will vary from 2 to 12. Creatures with a score of 2 will always flee. With score of 12, they will never flee.

Groups with a leader start with the moral score of the leader.

Incurring Morale Checks

Monsters make morale checks when:

- ► They begin combat status.
- ► First blood on their side.
- ► First death on their side.
- ► Group is reduced to half its initial number.
- ► A leader is killed.

Monsters will not make more than one moral check per round; They automatically succeed subsequent checks.

Making A Morale Check

Roll 2d6. If higher than the morale score, they will flea or surrender.

Otherwise, they will continue to fight, take 1 damage, and have their morale reduced by one.

Hostility

The higher a monster's hostility, the more quickly they will attack the players.

Depends on faction play, monsters may be more or less hostile to the players. Most monsters have a hostility of 7

Hostility	Significance
4	Friendly
6	Neutral
8	Aggro

See Adventure, page 10.

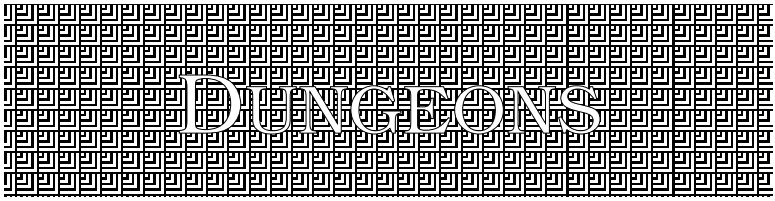

- ► Roll 2d6.
- ► +/- reaction modifier.
- ► +/- 1 for the situation.
- ► - Hostility.

Results

- ► ≤-5: Monsters are hostile, enraged, statused, and bear a grudge against the players. +2 hostility
- ► -5-0: Monsters are hostile, but keep their wits. +1 hostility.
- ► 1-4: Monsters are neutral, but firm. +1 hostility.
- ► 5-7: Monsters are neutral, statused, and likely to let something slide.
- ► ≥8: The monsters are friendly and tapped. -1 hostility.

DUNGEONS

Hazard

Rather than track exact time for every torch, rest, spell, and encounter, roll a d12 at the end of every turn and let probability space them out.

1-2. Burn

Torches and lanterns burn out. See Global page 11.

3-4. Fatigue

Players become fatigued. If they are already fatigued, they take 1 damage.

Ends certain spells.

Ignore this result while resting.

5-6. Sign

Signs of monsters appear. See page 7.

7-8. Shift

Doors swing shut. If the dungeon has features such as sliding walls, they shift now.

9-10. Stalking

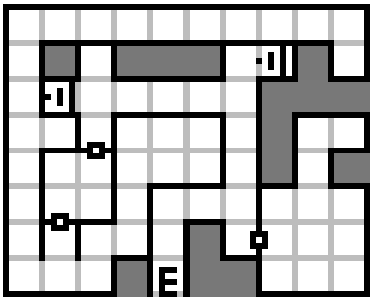

If there is a monster stalking the players, they make a sound or other sign.

Statistics

Monsters are described by the following statistics. Each section is separated with a horizontal line.

Descriptive

Name: Stat blocks begin with the name of the monster.

Description: One or two sentence description of the monster in natural language.

Qualities

Alignment (AL): See Error: Reference source not found: Alignment 5.

Observation Class (OC): The monster's ability to notice.

Hostility (HT): The base hostility of the monster.

Morale Rating (ML): The monster's likelihood to persist in battle. See Error: Reference source not found: Morale p3

Movement Rate (MV): The walking speed of the monster. Its crawling speed is half that, and running speed thrice that. For reference, PC's have a MV of 40'. If the monster has multiple modes of movement they are listed individually, separated by slashes.

Ability: The same ability scores that player characters have.

Saves: The monster's saving throw values:

- D: Death/poison.
- W: Wands.
- P: Paralysis/petrification.
- B: Breath attacks.

S: Spells/rods/staves.

Combat

Armour Class (AC): The monster's ability to avoid damage in combat.

Hit Dice (HD): The number of d8s rolled to determine an individual's hit points. Modifiers are applied after rolling. Some monsters are listed as having less than one HD, either as ½ (roll 1d4) or as a fixed number of hp.

Average hit points: The average hit point value is listed in parentheses.

Attacks: The attacks that the monster can use each round. Each option will list the AV for that attack, then the damage die, then the average damage.

Recharge: X-in-6 chance of recharging each round.

Dungeon

Number Appearing (NA): the number of monsters encountered roaming in a dungeon level equal to their HD. If the monster is encountered on a level greater than its HD, the number appearing maybe increased; if encountered on a level less than its HD, the number appearing should be reduced.

Treasure Type (TT): The letter code used to determine the amount and type of treasure possessed by the monster(s) (see Treasure Types, p230). The letters listed are used as follows:

A to O: Indicate a hoard: the sum wealth of a large monster or a community of smaller monsters, usually hidden in the lair.

P to V: If listed for an intelligent monster, indicate treasure carried by individuals (P to T) or a group (U, V). If listed for an unintelligent monster, indicate treasure from the bodies of its victims.

XP: The precalculate amount of experience points per Error: Reference source not found, Experience p14.

Other

Other abilities are indicated in a bulleted list.
