- Use a note card or additional sheet of paper to keep track hirelings. You can use one card per each, or a large sheet with several.
- Each character can be a boss to a finite number of hirelings determined by renown (as indicated by charisma).
- Hirelings must have fewer hit dice than their boss
- Hirelings must have their upkeep paid at the start of each session. If the session lasts more than 7 in game days, upkeep needs to be paid again each 7 days. Monsters with 10 or more loyalty do not need upkeep.
- The boss must provide for rations while traveling, as well as for any new adventuring gear, weapons, or mounts.

1. Loyalty

Hirelings are not mindless slaves. If abused hirelings might desert, mutiny, betray, or slander their boss.

The starting loyalty score of hired hireling is indicated by charisma. Monsters start with 4 loyalty. Hirelings might change loyalty during clean up.

Hirelings with two or less loyalty will betray boss, and have a 4-in-6 chance of reducing their renown by one. Monsterous, and chaotic hirelings may cooperate only for a time, betraying their boss once the conditions are right.

1. Loyalty Check

Roll 2d6. The check succeeds if the result is equal to or less than the loyalty score.

2. Peril

Dangerous tasks are perilous. A hireling must succeed a loyalty check or refuse the task. Furthermore, if they take damage or come to any unexpected harm during the task, they loose one loyalty.

Example of peril include: fighting a risky and unnescary battle, becoming lost in the dungeon, acting as bait, probing unknown objects.

3. Stats

The dungeon master has stats for animals and monsters. Hirelings have an AV of 19, 5 hit points, a physical save of 8, and a magic save of 5.

1. Henchmen

Henchmen are sidekicks which can gain XP and level up like players. There are two ways to gain a henchmen:

1. If a hireling survives three sessions, they can become a level 0 henchman.

2. A NPC can be persuaded to become a player's henchmen through roleplay. The dungeon master will decide what level they start at.

- Henchmen have 10 slots.
- Henchmen have a d8 hit die, and calculate HP like players.
- When a boss gains xp, they can choose to direct upto 50% of that XP to their henchman.
- Instead of upkeep, henchmen are paid with a portion of their boss's treasure. That portion is equal to two divided by their loyalty.
- At 2nd level, they gain one ability. If their boss is a spellcaster, they can memorize one 1st level spell from their boss. Otherwise, they choose one fighter skill.

- At 4th level, they gain a second ability. If their boss is a spellcaster, they can memorize one 2nd level spell from their boss. Otherwise they choose one advanced fighter skill.

Downtime

Returning characters can preform one downtime.

Second level characters of certain classes can preform advanced downtime

1. Community Service

Preforming service at the temple has no direct benifite, but may be required as penalty for crimes.

Except for the first time doing service, chaotic aligned characters can hire a goon to do service for them. The first time it costs 100 cp. Each time after costs 1% more, compounding. Diety disfavor can not be forgiven this way.

2. Worship

In order to worship, you must visit a temple matching your alignment. Each time you worship, you gain merit equal to you wisdom score plus 1d20. When you die, the temple will contribute cp to your funeral equal to 1/10th of your merit. There is also a chance they will be able to revive you, equal to merit/100 in 20

Additionally, divine spell-casters might be able to forgive diety disfavor. The chance is equal to their level, plus their wisdom, out of 100.

3. Baking

Help at the local bakery. Heal 1d6; if you are ar full HP, prevent the next 2 damage that would be dealt to you this session.

4. Healing

toxins, and a 2-in-6 chance of removing minor cureses.

5. Blessed Equipment

Loose any amount of XP upto the sum of all six ability scores. Add that much XP to an item. When that item has 333 XP, it becomes a +1 magical item. When it has 3,333, it becomes a +2 item.

6. Selling

Try to get a better buy on your treasure.

Each downtime, you can find buyers for treasure equal to 500 cp times your level. If a single object is more valuable than that, you must work for several downtimes to sell it.

When you sell the item, roll d% on the table, and add your charisma score.

d%	Sale
<20	Robbed! 0%
20-29	Low ball: 75%
30-39	Low ball: 90%
40-89	110%
90-100	140%
>100	Swindler! 200%

If you get a low ball, you can refuse to sell.

If you get robbed, ask your Dungeon Master for a lead on the thieves.

7. Gambling

Play a number of games of Dragon Ante equal to thrice your level.

You might also hear rumors. Make two charisma checks. For each you succeed, ask the Dungeon Master for a rumor.

Dragon Ante

The buy in for each game is 1 cp. Roll a 2d10 and see the result.

If you are a thief, add your level to the roll. If you roll two ones, you still go to jail, and the fine is doubled.

2d10	Result
2	Jail! Pay a 50 cp fine and preform a week of service. If you are unable to pay, loose a hand instead.
3-4	Loose horribly: pay 25 cp.
